LEAGUE DISCUSSES U.S. IN WORLD COURT

WHOLE EUROPE SADDENED BY GENEVA CRASH

LEADERS ENDANGERED

British and French Ministers
May Lose Seats Because of Debacle

Geneva, Switzerland.—(AP)—Convocation of a special conference of world court members to discuss the reservations to American adherence was said by league officials Thursday to be the probable plan of Sir Austen Chamberlain.

The British foreign secretary at Thursday morning's session of the league council initiated a motion, which was unanimously adopted, placing the matter of the American reservations on the council's agenda for Thursday afternoon's meeting. It is expected that if the conference materializes the United States will be invited to send a representative to the delegates of the other court members may benefit from his explanations of the American conditions.

The aim of the conference which presumably will be held the week prior to the September league assembly is an endeavor to secure a common answer to the American government from all the signatories of the court protocol.

The league leaders realize that one state can block American adherence, because all the signatories must accept the American conditions before the adherence becomes effective.

WASHINGTON SURPRISED

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—Indications that the League of Nations may ask that a representative of the Washington government explain the American reservations to the world court ratification caused great surprise Thursday at the state department.

Secretary Kellogg said this government was dealing directly with the 48 members of the court regarding acceptance of the reservations. Informal advice from several of the governments have indicated that they approve these reservations.

The secretary declined to say directly what his course would be if the league persisted in attempting to deal with the matter.

EUROPE DISAPPOINTED

London.—(AP)—There is profound disappointment among well wishers for the League of Nations throughout Europe over the breakdown of the session of the league called to elect Germany to membership. In some countries the hope of an agreement at Geneva tending toward general peace and security is regarded as indefinitely deferred, and fears are expressed that there will arise political criminations in their domestic politics which may add to the difficulties.

Such recriminations already have been strongly manifested in England where the anti-government press is making every effort to bring about the political downfall of Sir Austen Chamberlain, the foreign secretary, who,
with Premier Briand of France, is declared to be the author of the Geneva collapse.

It remains to be seen whether Premier Briand can inject his optimism regarding the future of the league into his countrymen. Dispatches from

BRIAND GETS CHILL RECEPTION IN PARIS

Col. Coolidge Calls In Friends To Say Goodby

Plymouth, Vt.—(AP)—The home folks of Plymouth are bidding farewell to "Colonel John". To the room in a modest white farm house where the president's father lies dying each day a few sad faced neighbors are admitted. Col. John C. Coolidge, for many years the town's first citizen has requested their presence and they obey the summons.

In the general store where the citizens of this Green mountain hamlet meet to discuss the affairs of the day, the Colonel's request stirs the memory of the elders. They recall that the Colonel's wife just before her death six years ago, felt a similar urge to bid old friends goodbye.
They are strong in these remote Vermont hills.

Lifelong friends are included in the list of those who have entered the sick room for the brief visit permitted by physicians and nurses. Others who have come were associated with Col. Coolidge in the public affairs of the town, were political friends or even foes. In the number have been some children, for the Colonel always took an affectionate interest in these.

Louis Chamberlain of Bridgewater, stage driver, is the most frequent caller. Twice each day he comes to the Coolidge home. In the early months of his illness the Colonel found in the stage driver his only contact with the outside world for he has never been a great reader of newspapers.

There has been just now and then the stage driver inquired one day if there was anything he could bring the patient from Ludlow. "Yes a new pair of legs" was the answer.

9TH CABINET SHAKY UNDER NEW PROBLEM

French Premier Pleads for Discipline to Solve Financial Difficulty

Paris.—(AP)—The ninth cabinet of Aristide Briand was received in a rather chill atmosphere when it appeared in parliament this afternoon in order to present its ministerial declaration, containing an appeal to the legislators to "observe exceptional discipline" in order that the financial difficulties of France might be solved.

The first applause in the chamber of deputies came when Premier Briand stated that his previous government's policy of international agreements would be adhered to. The chamber, however, received in deepest silence M. Briand's appeal for discipline in voting the necessary financial measures.

When M. Briand reached a passage of the declaration which referred to the government's desire to change the system of electing members of the chamber, he added "the country has its eyes on you and is awaiting anxiously your decision."

In reply to this the parties of the right and center shouted almost in unison, "yes, it is waiting for the dissolution of this chamber."

The chamber, after hearing the declaration, proceeded immediately to discussion of interpellations on French foreign policies. It is expected that a vote on the declaration will be reached Friday.

The premier, discussing the League of Nations sessions at Geneva, declared that no discord whatever existed between France, Germany and the other signatories of the Locarno pact, but added, "In returning to Paris this morning I found an atmosphere that was not quite the same."

"There appears to be in this chamber," he continued "the elements of a majority opposed to the government.
If it is the intention of this majority to overthrow me, it would be better that this be done immediately. I can't wait, but the country cannot."

FARM INDUSTRY IS IMPROVING TO END STRIKE

Federal Loan Board Reports Conditions Better Than
Year Ago

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—The agricultural industry as a whole is in better condition this year than last, the federal loan board Thursday reported to congress.

"Information which has been accumulated" the report said, "has to do with the ability of almost 400,000 farmers distributed through the 48 states and the island of Porto Rico to meet their financial obligations."

"There and there, it is true, as probably may be the case any year, some bad spots, due to drought or other unavoidable causes, manifest themselves, yet, broadly speaking, a spirit of optimism is clearly in evidence."

FORDHAM SEISMOGRAPH RECORDS EARTHQUAKE

New York.—(AP)—The seismograph at Fordham university Thursday recorded an earthquake that started at 9:18 A. M. and lasted nearly one and one half hours. It was estimated that the quake occurred 5,500 miles away. Its direction could not be determined.

QUAKE IN ASIA MINOR
Pezoma, Italy.—(AP)—A violent earthquake continuing for two hours was recorded at Professor Bandanti's observatory Thursday night. The center of the disturbance is thought to have been in Asia Minor. The shocks were so violent as to break the seismographic needles.

SENATE VOTES TO TAX NATIONAL BANK INCOME

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—The income of national banks would be subject to state taxation under a bill passed Thursday by the senate. A similar measure will be taken up Tuesday by the house.

NEW INSTRUMENT CAN SEND HEART BEATS BY RADIO

Minneapolis.—(AP)—Heart beats that may be heard across the continent are possible by means of a new "radio stethoscope" recently experimented with at the University of Minnesota, Anthony Zelny, professor of physics at the University of Minnesota said Thursday.

Radio amplifiers, specially constructed to minimize extraneous sounds, attached to an ordinary stethoscope, have enabled the physician to hear heart sounds more clearly and have "stepped up" the heart sounds to a degree where they may be broadcast by radio.

"The radio stethoscope" was experimented upon here with the idea of amplifying heart beats in the fortification and proved successful." Prof.
Zelny said.

SEEK MILLION DOLLARS TO WRITE NEW HISTORY

St. Paul, Minn.—(AP)—Professor Solon J. Buck of the history department of the University of Minnesota has been granted a year's leave of absence to serve as executive secretary of the American Historical association in directing a campaign to raise $1,000,000 to be used in research to fill existing gaps in American history. He will be at the ated actively with other societies and the author of several recognized historical works.

Bomb St. Patrick Dinner At Which Wales Is Guest

London.—(AP)—There was mystery Thursday as to responsibility for the "bombing" of two different St. Patrick day dinners Wednesday night, one attended by the Prince of Wales and the other by Premier Stanley Baldwin.

There was nothing to show whether the attacks were mischievous pranks or the manifestation of anger by persons with grievances, or a political protest of some Irish reconciliable against their countrymen hobnobbing with British royalty and British ministers.

The Prince of Wales is declared not to have been aware that missile containing a calcium carbide was a bomb was thrown into the lobby of the restaurant where he was dining with members of the Irish club.
At the Hotel Cecil, however, where Premier Baldwin was to deliver an address a man in the balcony hurled a piece of fire works down among the diners. It struck a woman newspaper reporter on the shoulder, dropped to a table and fell to the

BROOKHART IS SHARP THORN IN G. O. P. SIDE

Unseating of Iowa Radical May Mean Defeat of Iowa Regular

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1926 by Post Pub. Co.
Washington.—The Republican party has a real problem on its hands in handling the case of Senator Brookhart of Iowa whose election has been contested by Daniel Steeg, Democrat. A subcommittee has voted to unseat Mr. Brookhart. The full committee is expected to do the same
though the vote will be close. What the senate will do is another question.

Politically the incident may grow in importance, for if
Mr. Brookhart is unseated he will undoubtedly run in the primaries this year against Senator Cummings. Top Iowa votes into office a radical at a time when agricultural discontent is at its height. Some Republicans are afraid that the unseating of Mr.
Brookhart means the defeat of Senator Cummings. And Iowa is just now the focal point of the whole agricultural trouble of the Coolidge administration.

termined to unseat Mr. Brookhart

San Diego, Calif.—(AP)—Seaplane gunners of the bombing and torpedo wing of the battle fleet aircraft squadrons under Commander Warren Child are believed to have established a world's record during the competitive gunnery year now nearing a close.

Five gunners of the VT 2 squadron have scored the remarkable record of 97 hits in 97 shots, while their seaplane were flying at a speed of better than 80 miles an hour. Several gunners of the VT-1 squadron, it was reported at North Island Thursday, also attained perfect scores in firing machine guns at slow-moving targets from their seaplanes.

Not content with their amazing gunnery record, which Commander Child believes has never been equalled in the history of naval aviation, the personnel of the two squadrons has staged two gas attacks at sea against the destroyer Shirk with virtually perfect results.

Nothing had been ascertained
Thursday as to who threw the pasteboard box containing the calcium carbide and a piece of tarred rope into the restaurant where Wales was having his first St. Patrick day dinner with Irishmen.

There was no explosion. The presence of mind of some of the guests alone averted a catastrophe from fire and panic. A rush for the doors already had begun, but a calm authoritative shout from some man, "stay where you are" checked the exodus and the fire was quickly extinguished.

An Irish priest in the gallery pointed out the miscreant to attendants and he was speedily hustled out of the dining room and handed over to the police. An official of the Four Provinces club, which was giving the banquet, said the offender was a former member of the club and that the outrage was a deliberate attempt to break up the dinner.

Hang Army Officer For Slaying His Sweetheart

Manila.—(AP)—Second Lieutenant
John S. Thompson of the United States Army was hanged here Thursday for the murder of his 17 year old fiance whom he said he could not live without or marry because of his insufficient salary. He was the first American officer to be executed in peace time.

Calmly and without making a statement the young officer, who was 25 years old, walked to the scaffold in a warehouse at Fort McKinley after a day spent with his spiritual adviser and his attorney. Thompson killed Miss Audrey Burleigh at Manila in the early morning of April 5, 1925. She was the step daughter of Captain Hamilton I. Calmes, Medical corps, and they were engaged to be married.

Thompson became despondent because of his inability to marry the girl and he said he decided to kill her and intended to end his own life.
He feared that if the wedding was delayed he would never be able to make Miss Burleigh his wife.

Thompson was tried by court martial on a charge of first degree murder. A plea of not guilty was entered although Thompson admitted that he killed Miss Burleigh.

The court found Thompson guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced him to be hanged. The verdict was reviewed by the judge advocate of the Philippines, the war department at Washington and was approved by President Coolidge.

Thompson was appointed from the ranks to the military academy at West point. He was graduated with the class of 1924. The body will be sent to Thompson's parents at Far Rockaway, New York, on the next trip of the army transport Thomas.

REAPPOINT KRUGMEIER

The appointment of A. H. Krugmeier on the board of appeals to succeed himself was affirmed by the council. The length of his term will be three years.

Permits for the operation of soft drink parlors were granted George Finkel and Otto Weigand upon the recommendation of the police and license committee.

The selection of a city nurse will be postponed until the time for annual election of city officers, and the vacancy on the board of health caused by the death of Dr. Sandborn will not be filled until the expiration of the term, according to a resolution introduced by Alderman Thompson and adopted by the council.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY AFTER 1,000 MEMBERS

One thousand members is the goal the Holy Name society of St. Joseph church is striving to reach in its membership campaign which will close Sunday when all old members and the new candidates will approach Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock mass. A breakfast will be served in St. Joseph hall after the mass and there will be a speaker. The society is endeavoring to secure the largest membership of any Holy Name society in the Green Bay diocese.

The mission for men which is being conducted at St. Joseph church this week will close Sunday after-noon. The Rev. Father Camillus, spiritual instructor of the society, has returned from Brooklyn, N. Y., where he conducted a three-week mission.

Charles Hopfensperger has returned from a visit in Minneapolis.

Brookhart Thorn In G. O. P. Side

added to recommend the unseating of Mr. Brookhart believes the intent of the voters must be considered in examining the ballots. This is a broad question on which there is room for difference of opinion, at least senators have argued on both sides in other election contests.

When the vote is finally taken, it would not be surprising to find the Democrats supporting the election of Mr. Steck because it adds one more to their party in the senate. In the event that Mr. Brookhart is unseated it might mean the addition of another vote to the insurgent group if Mr. Cummins is beaten and Mr. Brookhart takes his place as a result of the election in the autumn of this year. This would mean that the new senator would take his seat sometime after March 1, 1927.

The Regular Republicans, on the other hand, have not felt that in Mr. Brookhart they had a supporter at any time. He has fought the regular Republicans all along the line. But their problem is: What effect will the unseating of Mr. Brookhart have on the political fortunes of Mr. Cummins, a tried and trusted member of the Republican group in the senate? There are some suggestions expressed here and there that Mr. Brookhart might be a better Republican in the regular sense, if he is retained in the senate through the votes of his Republican colleagues. They reason that the close vote is sufficient indication of how the regular Republicans in Iowa felt last year for it is known that the Democratic nominee Mr. Steck drew a large number of Republican votes. Otherwise he would not have been so close a contender for it is not customary for Iowa to elect Democrats to the United States senate or to cast electoral votes for a Democratic presidential nominee.

The final vote on the Brookhart case will be interesting for political analysis. The junior Iowa senator has many friends in the senate particularly in the insurgent Republican group and were it not for the party loyalty which many Democrats will feel binds them to look at things from Mr. Steck's viewpoint there would be no doubt about the seating of Mr. Brookhart.

VOCATIONAL DRAMATIC CLUB PRESENTS PLAY

Members of the Appleton vocational school dramatic club presented Zola Gale's play, "The Neighbors" at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers association of the Badger school, Grand Chute, Wednesday evening at the school. Several amateur stunts, including a controversial act by Miss Margaret and Orville Hammett, were included in the program.

Other stunts were a violin solo by Carleton Salder; an Irish Washwoman dance by Miss Arleen Landers; and a violin and harp duo by John and Raymond Krul. Miss Martha Chandler, recreation director "The Neighbors," and the director of Appleton Women's club members of the cast were: "Mrs. Abel," Marcelle Klumpers; "Inez," Helen Wahnert; "Peter," Florence Staedt; "Grandma," Mabel Peavel; "Mrs. Moran," Lena Reiter; "Mrs. Trent," Laura Schottler; "Mrs. Ellsworth," Mary Postler.

CIRCUIT COURT SESSIONS LAST ONLY TWO HOURS

Three Cases Are Settled Outside Court and One Is Dismissed

Three cases on the calendar for the March term of the circuit court for Outagamie-co were settled out of court Thursday morning, another was dismissed when the plaintiff failed to appear, and court was adjourned within two hours after it opened. Jurors were dismissed and a new jury will be drawn for cases which probably will be started next week. Five cases set for this week were postponed because attorneys were unprepared.

The suit of Hildegard Blechler to recover $5,000 damages from Walter La Fond for injuries which she received in an automobile accident on Oct. 2, 1925, was settled out of court and two other suits growing out of the same accident, those of E. W. Blechler and Emelia Moritz, also were settled out of court. The latter two were not scheduled until later in the March term.

The Blechlers and Miss Moritz were passengers in the La Fond car when they were injured.

The case of Charles McCaulley vs. Nicholas Nelson was dismissed on the motion of Nelson's attorneys when McCaulley failed to appear in court. McCaulley sued for $30,000 damages alleging breach of contract. McCaulley's complaint stated that he had contracted to buy the Olympia Recreation parlor, 167-09 W. College-ave, for $15,000 on Dec. 11, 1925. He paid $150 and the contract called for $5,250 more to be paid in 15 days, $100 a month for the first year, $250 a month the second year and the same amount each year until payments were completed.

Nelson disregarded the contract and sold to another party in spite of McCaulley's continued protest before the second sale was made. McCaulley alleged.

A suit brought by George Theiss against Henry Rammer for $500 damages for an alleged assault, appeared in circuit court and has been set for 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon, March 25. Theiss was awarded $100 when the case was tried in municipal court and he appealed to the higher court.

URGES KIWANIS TO BUILD BETTER CITIZENS

Kiwanians were urged to work toward building a better class of citizens that a better America may be the result in a speech on Building America, given by Dr. L. Wendell Finley, Sioux Falls, S. D., at the weekly club luncheon Wednesday noon at Conway hotel. The speaker declared that the service clubs could do more toward building America if their members were properly educated in the principals of American government and citizenship. Dr. Finley, who is here conducting a series of lecture meetings under the auspices of the Congregational church, is the lieutenant governor of his Kiwanis district in South Dakota.

Mrs. James A. Wood left Wednesday for Madison where she will spend several days.

League Debates U. S. In Court

France received here reflect disappointment over the failure at Geneva.

IRAND IN DANGER
Byrind must resume his difficult task of restoring the financial situation of his country to normal. With the failure of the league to elect Germany to membership his "security" ambition failed of accomplishment, as the Locarno pact cannot become effective until Germany is a league member.

Chancellor Luther and Foreign Minister Stresemann of Germany must face parliamentary fire particularly on the part of the communists and nationalists, who will endeavor to unseat them.

It is not thought however, that the efforts will prove successful. Before leaving Geneva Dr. Stresemann said the situation at Geneva was an unfortunate one and voiced a warning that it would be a hard task to bring German public opinion to the necessity of joining the League of Nations.

ITALY IS SILENT
Italy of all the great powers represented permanently on the league council, refrained from expressing regret that Germany failed of election to the league and a permanent seat in the council.

There comes from Madrid the announcement that Spain during the interim of the next election of council members will seek to reinforce her claim to a permanent chair.

RECONSTRUCT COUNCIL

Geneva.—The League of Nations council in public session Thursday afternoon ratified the decision taken in its secret sitting of Wednesday night to appoint a special committee including Germany to study the problem of reconstructing the council. A resolution adopted asks this committee to give particular attention to all claims for council seats, to hear all governments in regard to this question and to bear in mind geographical and other considerations raised by the

VILAS-CO EXPECTS HEAVY "LAND BOOM"

Vilas-co probably will be the scene of a big "land boom" this summer, according to a resident of that county who visited in Appleton Thursday. Dozens of outsiders are now in the county inquiring about the price of lots on many of the county's numerous lakes, he said, and some lake front purchases already have been made. Many prospective buyers visit lake fronts by traveling on snowshoes.

FINE ALEX JOSLYN FOR ASSAULT ON LUECKEL

Alex Joslyn, 311 E. College-ave, paid a fine of $5 and costs amounting to $8.20 Wednesday afternoon in municipal court when he pleaded guilty to a charge of assaulting Walter Lueckel, Appleton. The assault took place Wednesday morning.

Otto Mossholder, Grand Chute, pleaded not guilty to a charge of assaulting John A. Baum, Grand Chute, on March 10, and the case was adjourned until Saturday morning.

BERG UNOPPOSED FOR MUNICIPAL JUDGESHIP

Judge Theodore Berg, candidate for Outagamie-co municipal judge, will have no opposition at the spring election on April 6, according to John E. Hantschel, county clerk. Judge Berg's nomination papers were the only ones filed with Mr. Hantschel when the time for filing closed Wednesday night.

Judge Berg was appointed to the bench last summer by Gov. John J. Blaine to succeed the late Judge A. M. Spencer.

Impasse reached over the admission of Germany and the suggestions put forward in Wednesday's historic session of the assembly. If the committee is unable to make unanimous report, it is asked to bring in both majority and minority reports. The council approved the election of May 10 at the date for convening the committee.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS PLAN MEMORIAL PROGRAM

Memorial Day exercises next spring will probably be conducted under the auspices of C. O. Bay Camp, Spanish-American War veterans, according to an announcement by camp officers. Preliminary plans probably will be formulated at a meeting with members of the George D. Eggleston Post No. 133, G. A. R. on April 2.

The Spanish-American war veterans have agreed to take charge of the exercises at the request of the G. A. R. post, which adopted a resolution at its last regular meeting asking the former organization to conduct the services on that day. A resolution thanking the C. O. Bay camp for hearty cooperation in the past also was adopted by the G. A. R. post.

NO WORD IS RECEIVED FROM TAX COMMISSION

No word has yet been received from the office of the state tax commission at Madison as to whether Outagamie-co properly will be reassessed this year, although the final hearing on the petition for reassessment took place at the Capital city Wednesday. The opening session was held in Appleton on March 5 and the Wednesday hearing was short and informal. A decision in the case will be made in the near future, according to Leo J. Toonen, county assessor of incomes.

INSTALL OFFICERS AT VALLEY MOOSE FROLIC

Installation of officers will take place at the frolic to be given by the Fox River Valley Legion No. 142 Sunday at Moose temple here. A large class of candidates will be initiated at the business meeting at 1 o'clock and new officers will be installed. A program of entertainment is being arranged with E. W. Bates, chairman. A supper will be served at 6 o'clock by Women of Mooseheart legion. Delegations from Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Oshkosh, Kaukauna and Green Bay will be present.

LOOK FOR SHARP FIGHT ON "DRY" LAW REFERENDUM

Zimmerman Expects Both Wets and Drys Will Appeal to Courts for Help

Madison (AP) The proposed beer referendum in Wisconsin next November is open to at least two possible court actions, in the opinion of Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman.

One is an injunction to prevent him from placing the question on the sample ballots that are certified to the county clerks. The other is a mandamus to compel county clerks to submit the referendum to the voters, if the question is certified to them.

The 1925 legislature adopted a resolution, providing for a referendum in the November state wide election on the question: "Shall the congress of the United States amend the Volstead Act so as to authorize the manufacture and sale of beer, for beverage purposes, of an alcoholic percentage of 2.75 per cent by weight, under government supervision, but with the provision that no beverage so purchased shall be drunk on the premises where obtained."

DO NOT PROVIDE MONEY
After adopting the resolution, the legislature was advised that such a referendum could be held only by the enactment of a law, appropriating funds for the expense of it. It was too late in the session to enact a law, under the legislative rules, but another resolution was adopted, directing the secretary of state to submit the question to the voters.

Secretary Zimmerman has announced that he will place the question on the ballots. Additional expense will be involved, for the publication of notices and for printing, on the part of the state, and under the constitution and laws, no money can be expended except by appropriation.

However, in view of the legislature having clearly expressed its desire that the referendum be held, Mr. Zimmerman said he was confident his action in certifying the question would be upheld by the next legislature and an appropriation provided.

It is too early for the matter to be taken into the courts, in his opinion. Under his tentative plans, the question will be certified to the county clerks about Sept. 15. He expressed the belief that an attempt by the Anti-Saloon league or others to restrain him from certifying the question would be fruitless.

COMPEL ACTION
There is a possibility, Mr. Zimmerman said, that some county clerks would refuse to submit the referendum to the voters, even though it was certified to them, on the ground that legal provision had not been made for it by the legislature. In event of such a situation, mandamus actions probably would be initiated by the "wets" to compel the county officials to hold the referendum.

Two other propositions will appear on the ballots in November. They are the proposed constitutional amendments to permit the recall of elective officers and the fixing of the governor's salary by the legislature. Both have been enacted upon favorably by two successive legislatures and now depend upon the voters for success or failure.

JOHNS DELIVERS RADIO ADDRESS

Outlines Three Objectives
Necessary to Conserve Timber Supply

Three major objectives which must be accomplished by the people of the United States before the volume of timber produced annually in this country equals the volume consumed were outlined by J. L. Johns, Appleton, in a talk on Reforestation in the United States, which was broadcast from radio station WJRT at Stevens Point Tuesday evening. These three objectives were the prevention of forest fires, application of modern scientific forestry methods to the remaining stands of timber so that they may be kept productive, and the replanting the cut-over land.

Eczema Goes In Seven Days

Or Money Back

Thousands of people who suffer from itching skin, Eczema and unsightly eruptions will be glad to know that Moore's Emerald Oil, a clean, powerful, penetrating Antiseptic Oil, will banish their trouble in seven days or less.

For years they have been using Ointments and Salves and while they helped to relieve the itching, soreness and pain, they often choked the pores and did not allow the poisonous matter to escape.

Moore's Emerald Oil overcomes this objection for the Oil penetrates down thru the pores to the cause of the trouble and leaves them free to discharge all poisonous secretions. It is very concentrated and only a few drops are required at an application. You can get it at Volgt's Drug Store or any progressive drug store and if it doesn't end your trouble in seven days—money gladly returned—directions on each bottle.

Fellowship of Prayer

Daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission of Evangelism of Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

THURSDAY

Love and Obedience to Christ
Read John 14:21-26. Text: 14:23.
If a man love me, he will keep my word.

Meditation—Who of us would not give anything he possessed to be sure he would always keep Christ's word. But in each is a divided personality, treacherous, unstable. We cannot trust ourselves to choose the nobler we know, but to us the Master gives the secret of obedience. He who learns to love him will obey him. The simple but exacting way to love him is to practice his way of life and thus to learn how lovable he is. Rewarding friendship takes time. We must do our part. He will always do His.

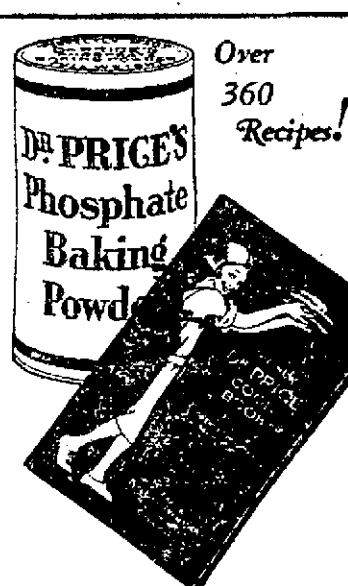

With to be a living flame for Jesus Christ, so that the uttermost love of woman may be:

"Point to the flame with which our breast is burning.
Less than the love wherewith we adore for souls."

Prayer—O God, Thou flawless intelligence behind the Universe we cry to Thee in our weakness. Help us to sustain the stern discipline in which we who are incomplete and undeveloped spirits rise to Thy friendship. Reinforce our faltering and sin-stained will that we may love Thee as Thou hast loved us and so may obey Thee into life. In our patience we must win life but without Thy divine patience we shall fail. Leave us not or we perish. Amen.

WISCONSIN IS LEADER IN CARE OF UNFORTUNATES

Eckern Says Child Bureau Report Is Based on Ancient History

Stevens Point (AP)—Attorney General Herman L. Eckern joined in the defense of Wisconsin's system of care for dependent children, in an address at an Elk's club banquet here Wednesday night.

The report of the children's bureau of the federal department of labor, which criticized the indenture system in Wisconsin, "is based principally on a difference of opinion as to the most practical methods of handling the residue of children which are carried for by the various home finding agencies," the attorney general said. "It deals with ancient history, describing rather inaccurately conditions of eight to twelve years ago. Marked changes and improvements have been made and are being made continuously."

NO APOLOGIES
"Wisconsin has no apologies to make for its persistent efforts in dealing with this problem. No problem can make better claim to our most careful attention than the care of our unfortunate children. This has the attention, not alone of the state but of a number of outstanding organizations of large hearted men and women of Wisconsin. They know of the efforts and improvements that have been made and all will surely cooperate to see that this duty is fully performed."

"We also have problems in providing more adequate institutions for those feeble-minded who must have custodial care and in providing for confinement of the criminal insane. We must perfect our parole system to still further increase the percentage of offenders restored to useful membership in society. Every individual

SAYS CHURCHES ARE IMPORTANT IN COMMUNITY

Dr. Fifield Opens Series of 18 Lenten Meetings Tuesday Noon

Declaring that the church has an important part to play in the economic, mental, moral and spiritual life of a community, Dr. L. Wendell Fifield, Sioux Falls, S. D., spoke on "Why Appleton Churches" Wednesday noon at Fischer's Appleton theater. The Fifield meetings are being sponsored by the First Congregational church but are open to the public. The meetings for the remainder of the week will be held at the Bijou theater.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon Dr. Fifield spoke at the Congregational church on Mental Factors in Health and Happiness. This was the first of the series of talks on religion and health presented at the afternoon meetings and laid the foundation for the future talks along this line. Miss Isabel Wilcox led the song service at this gathering.

The Pearl of the Jungle was the subject of Dr. Fifield's talk Tuesday evening at the Congregational church. The speaker drew an analogy between a small village (learning in a dense jungle which was in constant danger of being overgrown and blotted out of existence by the dense forest and of person who was leading the light kind of a life but was in continual danger of being overwhelmed by sin and wrongdoing which would obliterate all righteousness just as the jungle destroyed the village.

A duet "Love Divine" was sung by Carl J. Waterman and Miss Wilcox.

Votes on Recommendations of National Chamber of Commerce Committee

Questions about the American merchant marine which the board of directors of the chamber of commerce of the United States of America has decided should be placed before the member organizations for a referendum vote have been raised following recommendations of a special investigating committee.

The questions relate both to the American merchant marine and to the use of the federal government in promoting and regulating ocean transportation. It is well known in operating and sailing government owned merchant ships and to the aid which the government should give to American ships privately owned and operated. They have been received in ballot form by the Appleton Chamber of Commerce. All member organizations throughout the country have been sent identical ballots.

The questions to be voted on are the recommendations of the special committee. They are:

One committee recommends that the issue of a reduced shipping board be continued to regulation of the relations of merchant shipping to the public.

The committee recommends that services undertaken by the government for merchant shipping now performed by the shipping board should be transferred to the department of commerce.

The committee recommends that authority to order increase or decrease of trade route operations and authority to determine all questions as to sale of vessels operating such route should be given to a federal shipping council serving without compensation.

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

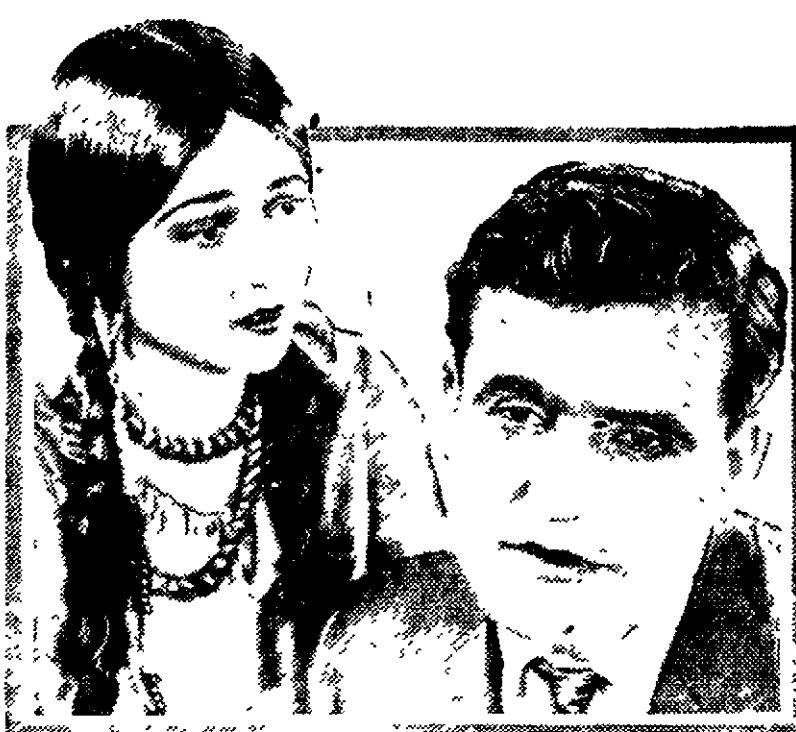

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do what which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

Fishermen Are Preparing For Another Trout Season

BY B. A. CLAVIN
In view of the proximity of the trout season—only six weeks hence—following a custom of long years standing we are now giving attention to our tools for the coming campaign. There is an old saying that anticipation is greater than realization. This undoubtedly is true. How ever were it not for this anticipation many an outfit would be neglected and there would result a great scramble at the eleventh hour for new lines and flies that might not be available on such short notice.

Speaking of lines after a rod they are of first importance. To the novice a line is a line whether it be a Halford vacuum dressed tapered silk casting twelve dollars or a five cent cotton trust such as are usually carried by the country store keeper. The novice is right where he line is to be used for prying bull-heads out of the old deep hole but now we are considering equipment for the gentleman and that equipment must be properly adapted and of the best to be had if proper advancement and success are to be attained in the really fine art of fly fishing.

Let us assume then that an enamel lined tapered line has been acquired for a five ounce rod—if you are to get your flies out to any distance with ease and facility. In natural sequence you will want a six or nine foot leader. This should be of silk and not too heavy even though you use wet flies.

As for patterns of flies best adapted for May fishing we will mention the following is a few of the most successful: King of the Waters Queen of the Waters Red Spinner Professor Yellow Max Golden Spinner.

SAXOPHONE BAND PLANS CONCERT

Will Entertain With Varied Program Friday Night at Chapel

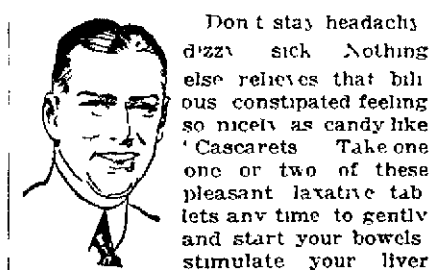

A varied program will be presented by the Saxophone band of the Oney Johnson Post American Legion at Lawrence Memorial chapel Friday evening March 19. Of especial interest will be the descriptive numbers each containing special effects.

The musical fantasia "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" will introduce the following movements: Barcarolle hornpipe, the storm prayer and Little all of which are novel treatments of the familiar melody.

The last and probably most brilliant number of the program will be "Cavalry Charge" by Luder. This descriptive fantasia introduces down to date infantry in distance skirmish cavalry approaching the charge melee artillery pursuit and finale.

BUNGLING IN LEAGUE

The announcement that Germany's admission to the League of Nations is to be postponed for consideration at a future meeting, presumably in June or September, is disappointing. It is particularly disappointing in view of the fact that Geneva dispatches indicate an agreement was reached between Germany, Great Britain and France on the controversy over a reorganization of the council.

When it came to a showdown, responsibility for the preservation of peace, the Locarno treaties and an effective League of Nations, became too great for any one European nation to ignore, despite secret understandings that appeared to have been made at Locarno. Sweden and Czechoslovakia offered to give up their elective council seats so that Poland might have a place, thereby enabling Great Britain and France to approximate fulfillment of their secret pledge to Poland to land her permanently in the council. The other nations withdrew their conditional objections to Germany's entrance. Likewise France modified her demands to such an extent as to not offend German dignity and self-respect.

At this juncture Brazil became the obstreperous actor, going so far as to demand a seat on the permanent council on threat of voting against Germany's entrance into the League. This extreme action was strongly disapproved by the other Latin-American nations and by the League council. Brazil doubtless will be prevailed upon to be more reasonable. Her attitude, however, is blamed for the probable postponement of the meeting to elect Germany to membership in the League.

The deliberations at Geneva and the bitter quarrels engendered, have not improved the standing of the League. This is regrettable because of the League's greatly increased prestige resulting from the Locarno treaties, but of course it will destroy the League's usefulness. That usefulness will, as heretofore, depend upon the future. The League has gone through a number of trying ordeals, and thus far it has avoided the rocks. The right and impressive thing to have done at Geneva was to promptly admit Germany to the league and to a permanent seat in the council. Old tendencies to invoke balances of power and to engage in selfish politics prevented this. The claims of neither Spain, Poland nor Brazil could have caused more than a ripple on the surface had the great powers kept their eye to the single purpose of admitting Germany, nor had they any right to attempt to tie Germany's hands in advance by exacting from her a promise that she would do thus or so after elected to the council. It is Germany's privilege to act as her judgment dictates, and she could accept membership on no such terms. She has assured the allies of a purpose to cooperate with them and to give due weight to majority opinion, which is as far as she can be asked to go.

In time the whole controversy will be ironed out to the satisfaction, more or less, of all concerned. There would be fewer sore spots if the League had taken the bull by the horns and acted as the major ends clearly dictated. Postponement of Germany's case is embarrassing and disconcerting. Everything will be patched up in the end, but why so much bungling?

THE PRESIDENT AND PROHIBITION

President Coolidge declines to be drawn into the prohibition controversy. He is not responsible for the constitutional amendment nor for the Volstead act. Neither is he responsible for the preservation of the law on the statute books or for its modification or repeal.

Congress makes the laws, and while from time to time the president is required to advise congress of the state of the country and to make recommendations for legislation, it is not his duty to take sides or to assume leadership for or against a proposition that is decidedly controversial, and one that does not touch the usual or constitutional obligations of his office. Mr. Lincoln's handling of the slavery question up to the time of his emancipation proclamation was a wise exhibition of executive judgment in refusing to be drawn into a bitter dispute, and to postpone final action until he saw fit to act. The clamor of politicians and extremists of both sides he was able to resist.

The president can best afford to follow this course in dealing with prohibition. It is not for him to tell the country what it should do; that right and responsibility are with the people. The president is content to accept what the country may decide. If congress voted for modification of the Volstead act in response to what was unmistakably a majority demand of the people, we have no doubt Mr. Coolidge would sign the bill. Any president would do that who had due regard for his constitutional position.

On the other hand, while the Volstead act is the law of the land, it is the president's duty to enforce it. We may have differences of opinion as to how enforcement has been conducted, but we have had it repeatedly from the president that it is his desire and purpose to make enforcement effective. He believes in the dignity and supremacy of law as a matter of principle. No person would be fit for the presidency who had any other conception of law. We may conclude that the administration has woefully fallen down in enforcing the Volstead act, and that the president is chargeable with this failure, but we cannot accuse him of playing the favorite of either side. If prohibition enforcement is a farce and the president in the background is to blame, it is not because he is a wet. It is because political obstacles will not permit him or the government to make it genuine.

Probably Mr. Coolidge's leanings, if he has any, are with the dries; we should certainly expect him to be against liquor in principle, although how far he would carry the principle as a matter of practical application is another thing. It is unnecessary for the president to take a stand for or against modification. On the contrary, we think he is obliged as a matter of fairness and executive duty to refrain from taking a stand. The proper course for him is to let the wets and dries fight it out, content to accept results, whatever they may be, and there appears little doubt that that is the course he intends to take.

TODAY'S POEM

By HAL COCHRAN

A couple of pedestals soar to the sky, and their occupants make us all glad. You've seen them, of course, in your little mind's eye. Let's consider them—mother and dad.
We all owe a debt that we never can pay, but at least we can make just the best of it, by showing our thanks in our acts, day by day—and they'll have to imagine the rest of it.
Right now is the time you can do little things that will show that, as daughter or son, you are happy from acts that real happiness brings to your parents, whenever they're done.
Our lives, after all, are too short to repay our folks for the things they have done for us. 'Tis best that we do one good act every day. What's the answer? It really means fun for us.
Say, where is the daughter or son who'll deny that there's everything due Mon N' Pop? Let's start off today to repay—you and I—let's start it, and then, never stop!
Autos may take the place of street cars some day. They are trying to do it now by knocking them out of the way.
In St. Louis a drug clerk shot a man, and if the man asked the price of postage stamps we hope the clerk goes free.
Chicago man married a widow with nine children, putting the round-the-world aviator daredevils in second place.
They eat grasshoppers in South America, and it might be a good idea for our auto-dodging pedestrians to try this diet.
Dog days would be much nicer if they were not hot dog's days.

TAKING THE GALL OUT

About eight years ago Dr. Bethuel B. V. Lyon of Philadelphia introduced a new technical procedure whereby bile could be drawn directly from the gall bladder for examination, and this nonsurgical drainage of the gall bladder, as he called it, has proved of considerable value in the diagnosis of gall bladder affections. Briefly the procedure involved the application of the duodenal tube, a modern refinement on the famous old stomach pump, and the injection into the duodenum of a solution of Epsom salt, which has the effect of stimulating the gall bladder to empty itself into the duodenum, where the bile was drawn out through the duodenal tube.
Not long after this procedure was adopted by physicians generally, some benefit from this occasional extraction of the gall, and this led to more careful trials of the method as a remedial measure, and some of the physicians who tried it out concluded that it was of distinct value, while others were unable to see that it had any actual remedial value—they were inclined to ascribe improvement in the condition of the patient to the rest in bed, dieting and other measures employed at the time the gall bladder drainage was carried out.
Physicians who looked upon the procedure as a real aid in the treatment of gall tract and associated conditions argued that the removal of the bile in this way prevented the reabsorption of bacteria or their poisons into the blood through the wall of the diseased gall tract, as well as the reabsorption of these poisons from the bile in the intestine, if the bile were left to its natural course. They argued that this nonsurgical drainage diminished the amount of focal infection from the infected gall bladder or gall duct as the focus, source or depot, through the rich network of lymphatic channels in that region.

All fine and dandy so far. But it was about time for some one to come along and tip over Dr. Lyon's apple cart.

There was always something about these arguments of adherents of the Lyon procedure that reminded one of the arguments put forward by German pharmacologists in behalf of their endless stream of new medicines. In other words the appeals are plausible but not very convincing.

Along came Dr. Edward A. Boyden of Harvard Medical school and observed that the gall bladder of cats could be made to empty by feeding the cats a mixture of egg yolks and cream. This was kind suggestive. So Dr. Lester E. Whitaker of Boston suggested the action of the gall bladder by means of the X-ray, and that a question of physiology, and Carlson is certain that the gall bladder empties its contents into the duodenum just as promptly and as thoroughly after the eating of food, particularly fatty food, as it does when the patient is subjected to discomfort of the duodenal tube, and Dr. Whitaker believes the evidence reflects doubt on the value of nonsurgical drainage of the gall bladder by magnesium sulphate (Epsom salt) solution injections.

Then Prof. A. J. Carlson of Chicago, no doctor at all but a whiz of a physiologist, jumped in, swinging a lusty shillalah, and knocked all the fine arguments to smithereens. Viewed from the physician's position, and this is a question of physiology, and Carlson is certain that the gall bladder empties its contents into the duodenum just as promptly and as thoroughly after the eating of food, particularly fatty food, as it does when the patient is subjected to discomfort of the duodenal tube, and Dr. Whitaker believes the evidence reflects doubt on the value of nonsurgical drainage of the gall bladder by magnesium sulphate (Epsom salt) solution injections.

So there you are, as it were. Dr. Lyon's method begins to look like one of Rube Goldberg's machines.

LOOKING BACKWARD

25 YEARS AGO

Thursday, March 21, 1901

The sleet storm of Tuesday night and the snow storm of Wednesday had practically isolated Oshkosh from the rest of the world as far as wire communication was concerned. Traffic on the Citizens' traction was suspended several hours. The loss reached many thousands of dollars.

The first type setting machine to be used in an Appleton printing office had now been in successful operation for about a week in the composing room of the Crescent.

The annual state oratorical contest which was to include two representatives from Ripon and Beloit colleges at Lawrence university was to be held the next evening at the Congregational church. The speakers were to include N. Bert Richardson and Claude D. Cole of Lawrence, Ithel B. Davies and Von Oorden Vogt of Beloit and W. R. Davis and D. H. Holbrook of Ripon.

At the meeting held the previous day between representatives of the Fox River Fair and Driving association of this city and the Outagamie Agricultural association of Hortonville the consolidation of interests was affected. The two fairs were combined to be held in this city the coming season under the name of the Outagamie County fair and under the management of the present officers of the Hortonville association.

Edwin B. Kellogg and Mrs. Carrie D. Harbeck were married at 3 o'clock the previous afternoon at their home 1066 Front-st.

10 YEARS AGO

Thursday, March 16, 1916

Prof. William S. Nayler of Lawrence college was to deliver a lecture at a special service of St. Paul Methodist church at Green Bay on Sunday evening, March 19.

A course of study to take the place of the one in use for the past seven or eight years was discussed at the meeting of grade school principals at the office of Miss Carrie Morgan, superintendent of schools that morning.

Officers of the Fox River Fair association for the coming year were elected at the meeting of directors of the association held Saturday afternoon at the office of the secretary, John M. Balliet. Officers included W. G. Jamison, president; Charles Simpson, vice president; John M. Balliet, secretary; J. J. Hauert, treasurer; Charles Foss, superintendent of speed and grounds.

County Clerk William Wolf granted marriage licenses that morning to William C. Honick and Emma Krause of Appleton; J. O. Farris and Maymie Hocker of Appleton.

Master Gilbert Stecker entertained seven friends in honor of his birthday anniversary Wednesday. Mable Schultz and Harold Hammer won prizes.

SEEN, HEARD and IMAGINED

---that's all there is to life

BRAND NEW

It started out when mother bought some goods down at the store and little sister soon found out just what the goods was for. She watched the patient cutting of the cloth to pattern size and even tried to help a bit—like every youngster tries.

The trimming and the pinning were the parts mom did by hand, and quite a bit too difficult for sis to understand. But every move was gazed at by this interested child, who knew what mom was makin' and whose hopes were runnin' wild.

The hemming and the stitchin' and the basting by machine still found wee smiling daughter very much up on the scene. The several yards of pretty cloth, which lace was due to drape, were very slow, but surely, drifting into proper shape.

At last, the final touches, and a youngster's shout of glee at seeing mother's handiwork—as pretty as could be. Now why was little sister thrilled? I'll bet you'd never guess. But, never mind, I'll tell you: Sister has a brand new dress.

The clutch is always put to use when you're driving an auto—and doubly so when there's a girl with you in the front seat.

Does it pay drivers to speed? Huh, uh—! It pays the judge! She told her beau that mother dear, Did not object to kissing. And ever since, her mother and her fellow have been missing.

NOW, HONESTLY—

What would your cellar look like if it weren't for the rubbish man? Just like a lot of them probably look anyway, huh?

Put, all spoiling to the four winds—he's a pretty good sort, is the fellow who toots his own horn to announce that he's about your vicinity and about to gather rubbish.

No matter how careful you may be, odds and ends are bound to gather in the basement, which only tend to litter as long as they linger.

Then—along comes the clean-up guy, and though he may bother you for the moment—you're mighty glad to see him after all.

After all what?

After all your rubbish!

ICEBERG PATROL MEN ARE MODERN KNIGHT ERRANTS

Fighting Huge Floes as Romantically Terrifying as Fighting Dragons

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, D. C.—Knight errantry is not yet dead. It still flourishes in modern guise up around the Grand bank of Newfoundland when the federal ice patrol undertakes, every summer, the task of chasing icebergs and warning ships of their danger.

Icebergs may not be as romantically terrifying as medieval dragons and magicians, but they are just as uncertain and far more formidable. During their busy season, they drift about like floating islands of white rock, frequently concealed by a screen of mist, obstructing the path of unwary vessels. The work of trailing them, demoralizing them if possible, or of warning ships of their presence, calls for superlative skill and courage.

The members of the ice patrol, however, do not view their service to humanity in a romantic light. They proceed with their duties in an utterly practical matter-of-fact way, armed with scientific instruments, and trusting more to ocean currents and the radio than in a benign Providence. In the reports of their work the most thrilling rescues are described with a cold, mathematical precision which robs them of much of the appreciation they merit.

COMMANDER'S REPORT

Here is a sample item from the report of the commander of one of the ice patrol boats: "At 2 p. m. observed a steamship on star-board beam, apparently without wireless, and stood for her. Arrived close abeam about 3 p. m. and found that she was the Moya, of Trieste, bound for Europe. Semaphored to her information in connection with ice and advised caution during the night, but the message not being understood, sent lit by International Signal code, which was gratefully received by the master."

In other words, the Moya, which could not be reached by wireless, was pursued by the ice patrol and warned to change her course just as she was headed for an iceberg.

Based on Halifax for fuel and supplies, the coast guard cutters, Modoc and Tampa, alternate in patrolling for icebergs and in warning shipping from early March until July. Most of the bergs break off from the glacier fringe of the west Greenland coast, but some drift around Cape Farewell from east Greenland. A smaller number start on their voyage from Smith sound.

To use a coast guard expression, a west Greenland glacier "calves" about one iceberg a day. If the season is warm, a herd is soon pointing for Labrador. Newfoundland and the Grand bank, but comparatively few of the monsters reach the tail of the bank, where they are altogether too near the trans-Atlantic steamship lanes for comfort.

"Here the interplay of the cold Labrador water and the warmer gulf stream water, resulting in a more or less complex and varying series of eddies and currents, carries the bergs back and forth," explains a member of the ice patrol. Some seasons the bergs are much more troublesome than others, depending largely upon the force and temperature of the gulf stream, which pushes them back north. In a summer when the gulf stream is unusually warm, but few bergs are encountered in the region of the shipping lanes. Occasionally, however, the lanes must be shifted south in order to avoid them.

It is the duty of the ice patrol to trail the bergs, to study their archi-

TWO FLOORS OF GOOD THINGS TO WEAR

POTATO ONCE WAS OUTCAST

Lowly Vegetable Is Now Mainstay of Irish and Other Peoples' Diet

From The Pathfinder.

"The largest gold nugget ever found was never half so useful to the world as one good mealy potato." This weighty conclusion of philosophy was uttered by no less a person than the sage of Chelsea, Thomas Carlyle.

Irish potatoes were a gift of the new world to the old. While Aescop was discharging to the peasants and kings of Greece the incans in far-away Peru were cultivating the potato as a domestic crop. All authorities are inclined to believe that the potato originated along the Pacific coast of South America whence it was carried to Europe by the early Spaniards. This is supposed to have happened early in the sixteenth century.

But the potato had a hard fight for recognition. At first many people thought potatoes would cause leprosy and dangerous fevers. Others were of the opinion that since potatoes were not mentioned in the Bible they would endanger their souls by eating them. There is a tradition that Sir

Isaac Newton, when he was a student at Cambridge, and to how the potato is in a crumbling state. At night searchlights are used to keep the bergs under surveillance.

Meanwhile, the patrol ship acts as a clearing house of information to all vessels approaching and passing through the danger zone. They must be radioed frequently, and hourly reports are expected from them. The positions of all these ships are mapped and when near the course of a berg they are warned away. Bulletins are issued to shipping (wireless), and meteorological reports are also sent to the weather bureau in Washington.

Benito Should Seek the Advice of Experience

Q. What is meant by Police Verso? I think it is the name of a picture.
D. R. W.
A. This famous painting by Gorme is that of the victim in a gladiatorial contest standing over his vanquished rival looking toward the spectators for their verdict. They are represented with thumbs (the latter being the meaning of the words Police Verso) which signal meant death to the defeated. A well known philologist has passed the opinion that "the thumb symbolized the short Roman sword, and the gesture which meant the death of the vanquished gladiator was given by turning the hand over, into an unnatural position, with the thumb (sword) pointing at the defeated man."
Q. Has the miner's strike in the anthracite field, reduced the year's output of coal materially? C. L. T.
A. It has cut production heavily. By the end of December the deficit in anthracite output had reached approximately 23,500,000 gross tons. In 1924 the total output was 78,505,127 gross tons, of which 68,370,981 tons were shipped, 2,717,807 tons sold locally, and 6,817,343 tons used for power at the mines. For 1925, government agencies give the total production as approximately 55,000,000 gross tons.
Q. What is the meaning of the words—Mary, Nazareth, and Israel? C. M.
A. Mary is the same as Miriam. Its first, and best meaning is "exalted." "Nazareth" means "separated" or "sanctified." "Israel"—"He that sees God."
Q. Why is Babbitt metal called that? A. R. T.
A. Babbitt metal takes its name from that of its discoverer, Isaac Babbitt, an American inventor, a native of Massachusetts. The metal was invented and patented in 1839.
Q. What language does English come from? A. M.
A. The English language was the language used originally by the Teutonic tribes that invaded the Island of Britain during the latter half of the 4th century. It belongs historically to the western branch of the Teutonic languages and to the low German subdivision of that branch, being most closely allied to the Frisian.

2 SCHOOLS WIN CUPS IN SECOND MUSIC PROGRAM

Roosevelt Boys and Wilson Girls Honored at Demonstration in College Chapel

First places in junior high school piano club contests which featured the public school demonstrations Tuesday evening at the Lawrence Memorial hall were won by the girls' club of the Wilson school and the boys' club of the Roosevelt school. The demonstrations are being conducted by Dr. D. L. Baker, supervisor of public school music in the city and will be concluded with a music memory contest and a demonstration of teaching instrumental music in classes Thursday evening at the chapel. The boys' piano club of the three junior high schools are trained by Dr. Baker and the girls' clubs are under the direction of Irene Bidwell, assistant supervisor of music.

THREE PART SINGING
Dr. Baker demonstrated four part mixed chorus singing by combining one girls and one boys club. The girls of junior high school are no three part singing in their class clubs, taking first and second soprano and alto parts. The junior high school boys, however, have all four voices in their clubs namely first and second tenor and first and second bass.

Dr. Baker explained that the boys whose voices had not yet changed took the first and second tenor parts while only those boys whose voices had changed were able to sing first and second bass. He also explained that singing the part for which one's voice was suited would strengthen and develop the voice but that attempting to sing any part to which the voice was not suited would permanently injure the vocal cords.

Students of the Lawrence Conservatory of music presented an operetta entitled "Miss Caruthers' Return" following the demonstration Wednesday evening.

On Thursday evening the teaching of piano and music in classes will be shown. The piano students are under the supervision of Dr. Baker and Mrs. Laura Brigham and the music demonstration will be given by Edward F. Munn. A music memory contest will be another feature Thursday. The following students will have a part in the program Thursday evening:

Piano students—Geraldine Leinweaver, Irene DeWitt, Audrey Johnson, Mary Edwards, Vance Edwards, Lucille Koehnke, William Zuehlke, Cyrus Triffin, Charles Herzog, Max Zerkel, Marcelle H. ## WRITE REPORT ON DEBATORS STUDY PENMAN METHODS LABOR QUESTION

Committees Submit Result of Open Season Friday, March 19, Against East Green Bay and Manitowoc

A composite report of the findings of the writing committees of first and second grades third and fourth grades, and of the fifth and sixth grades respectively will be made, and from these reports a bulletin will be compiled to discuss the type of system of writing to be used in the grades in the public schools next year. It was arranged at a meeting of the writing committee of the first and second grades with Ben J. Rohan, superintendent of schools at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The committee members have been conducting experiments with the pupils of their grades to ascertain difficulties the children at each grade find in penmanship and the recommendations of each of the teachers will be considered in the final report submitted for the bulletin, it was said. An endeavor will be made to solve the problems presented in teaching writing.

The aim of the writing bulletin, Mr. Rohan said, will be to tell what amount of time will be used in the different grades, what will be done to overcome difficulties in writing, what pedagogical principles will be applied to writing that are used in other teaching subjects, what adjustments will be made in writing pedagogy, what is the muscular and nervous coordination of each individual child. The underlying principles of these separate aims are the pursuit of legibility and speed, it was said.

Members of the committee from the first and second grades are Miss Marion MacVean of Washington school, Miss Josephine Parton of Columbus school and Miss Ruth Taylor of the First ward school.

Hair Dry, Brittle from Constant Waving, Curling

The constant curling and waving demanded by present styles in bobbed hair, slowly burns the color, dries and very life from the hair, leaving it dry, faded, brittle and full of dandruff, then the hair roots shrink and the hair falls out fast.

Since girls just must curl and wave the hair to appear their prettiest, try "Danderine" to offset any bad effects. After the first application your hair will take on new life and that healthy, youthful lustre, become incomparably soft, wavy and appear twice as thick and abundant. Falling hair stops and dandruff disappears.

A 35-cent bottle of refreshing "Danderine" from any drug store or hair counter will do wonders for any girl's hair. It goes right to the roots in vigorous, nourishes and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow thick, healthy and lustrant.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. They can stop the system with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote, that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. adv.

STATE GROWS BY 39,000 PEOPLE IN SINGLE YEAR

Government Estimates Wisconsin Population at 2,884,734 by Next July 1

Wisconsin will have a population of 2,884,734 by July 1, 1926, an increase of 39,000 in a year, according to an estimate of the department of commerce based on data regarding births, deaths, immigration and emigration since 1920. The estimated population for the United States on July 1, 1926 is 117,135,617 an increase of 1,857,723 over July 1, 1925. The increase in Wisconsin since the 1920 census is 252,667. The population of the state as arrived at by distribution of the increase between 1910 and 1920 except that state census figures are substituted in all cases where a state census was taken in 1925 and no estimates are made for those states which showed a decrease of population from 1910 to 1920.

That Wisconsin gain during the last year has been a substantial one is shown in the fact that Iowa only slightly smaller than Wisconsin showed a gain of only 2,988 during the last year. Iowa's population on July 1, 1925 was estimated at 2,422,915. The population of Illinois was estimated at 7,292,957 a gain of 110,297 in a year. Minnesota, like Wisconsin showed a substantial gain during the last year jumping from 2,610,707 in 1925 to 2,651,306 in 1926 a gain of 40,603. The figures show that Wisconsin still ranks thirteenth in population among the 48 states of the union. New York is first with an estimated population of 11,593,236 people and Pennsylvania is second with 9,613,570. Illinois is third with 7,292,957.

STUDENTS HEAR VOCATION TALK

Dr. Jennie McMullen Turner Addresses High School Assembly

What to Look for in Vocation was the subject of an address given by Dr. Jennie McMullen Turner of the state board of vocational education at a general assembly meeting of Appleton high school Wednesday morning. Dr. Turner said three things should be remembered when pursuing a vocation. That certain vocations should be used only as stepping stones to better and higher opportunities; that one should always learn on the job; that there were no graduation exercises in business and that one should always have a side line or hobby to earn him over if the vocation is wiped out. Several musical selections were given by Wenzel Albrecht, violinist and Hudson Bacon, pianist. Coach Warren Wright on the debate squad applied to the students to support the debaters Friday night when the Appleton negative team will meet the East Green Bay affirmative team in Appleton.

ORGANIZE CAGE LEAGUE TO FIND FUTURE STARS

Three Lower Classes Organize Ten Teams for Tournament Games

Kaukauna — Ten basketball teams composed of freshmen, sophomores and juniors of Kaukauna high school have been organized into a league and will compete in a tournament. Members of the high school second team have been nominated captains of these teams and each captain has the privilege of choosing his team from all the boys in the freshmen, sophomore and junior classes, but once the members of the team have been announced there can be no switching back and forth between teams of any players. They must complete the entire schedule playing on one team. According to present plans each team will play each other two times and at the close of the schedule the two best teams will play a series of games for the school championship. Two games an afternoon will be played three days a week. Coach William Smith expects to start the regular schedule Monday, Mar. 22. First string members of the boys basketball squad will act as referees.

This plan was devised by Smith as a method of finding new talent for future high school basketball teams and with nearly seventy boys competing it will be possible to get a line on their playing long before the regular basketball season opens. Also a large number of boys will come out to play in this tournament who feel they hadn't a chance of making good during the regular season and it is among these timid students that Coach Smith figures he might find some men who can fill the places of players like Tommie and Pharr of this year's team who will graduate in June.

Coach Smith said that if he found only two or three new players he would consider the tournament a success.

At present the schedule is being arranged and one team is incomplete. As soon as enough players are "swept up" for this team everything will be in readiness for the opening games. This week is being devoted to practice by the various teams.

YTAKE APPLICATIONS TO ENTER Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Kaukauna—Applications of boys who wish to attend the Y. M. C. A. camp in north woods of Wisconsin are being received daily by P. E. Macinnis, Y. M. C. A. secretary. Camp Manitowish is located on Boulder Lake in Vilas co. It is a mile from Boulder Junction, 21 miles from Woodruff and five miles from state trunk highway No. 10. The camp property consists of approximately 115 acres of land with more than a mile of shore line on Boulder lake.

The equipment of the camp consists of two baseball fields, tennis, volleyball and basketball courts, fine sandy beach, large pier with springboard and high-diving platform. A fleet of twenty canoes and eight rowboats are owned by the camp. The camp program is planned with the primary purpose of developing boys, physically, socially, mentally and morally. A daily routine is strictly adhered to but it allows considerable free time for boating, canoeing, fishing and hiking.

The camp season starts June 30 and ends August 25. This season is divided into eight periods and the boys may remain one period or more if they wish to.

Social Items

Kaukauna—Misses Leone and Esther Peters will entertain the U. B. club Wednesday night at their home. The girls will spend the evening in sewing.

A group of friends surprised Miss Lucile Wenzlaff Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lutz. The evening was spent in playing bridge and prizes were won by Helen Puetzler and Robert Mathews. Out-of-town guests were Clark Jones of Fond du Lac, and James Bondy of Green Bay.

Mrs. H. T. Runtz entertained the Tuesday evening Bridge club at her home Tuesday night. Bridge provided the evening's entertainment and prizes were won by Miss Olive Nagan and Mrs. Louise Nelson.

STUDENTS EAGER FOR CONTESTS IN SPEAKING

Kaukauna—Enthusiasm in declamation and oratorical work is increasing in Kaukauna high school with the result that more students are signing up each week to take part. Lyla Alwardt, Helen Weidenbach, Edna Sager, Dorothy Fiedler, Ruth Stiller, Margaret Boucher and Dorothy Goldin are the latest entrants for declamations while William Ashe and Edward Langley have entered oratory. Miss Ruth Noma, who is in charge of declamation work, said she expected as many more to enter. The work in oratory is in the charge of Miss Ethel Handran. Preliminary tryouts will be held the latter part of March or early in April.

M'CLELLAN MUST STAND TRIAL IN CIRCUIT COURT

Former Policeman, Charged With Shooting Ed Wolf-rath, Bound Over

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Elliott McClellan, (former police officer) charged with shooting Ed Wolf-rath on Oct. 12, was bound over to circuit court of Waupaca co. for trial by the police court Wednesday afternoon. He will be brought up for trial during the May term of circuit court in Waupaca.

The hearing of McClellan, which was held in a crowded courtroom Tuesday afternoon, was sensational. The state was represented by district attorney of Waupaca county, Otto L. Olsen of Clintonville, while the city attorney of New London, W. J. Butler, appeared for the defense.

Wolf-rath appeared in court on crutches. He was at St. Elizabeth hospital, Appleton, for 17 weeks. Dr. P. J. Teifer, who appeared as a witness for the prosecution, testified that the femur bone of Wolf-rath's left leg had been shattered, that his leg is now about three inches shorter than his right, and that he will be permanently maimed and crippled for life.

Wolf-rath, who was put on the stand by the prosecution, gave his own version of the events that led up to the shooting.

BABY CHICKS ARRIVE AT KAUKAUNA OFFICE

Kaukauna — The first shipment of baby chicks were received at the postoffice Tuesday morning and were consigned to Albert Van Gompel, route No. 1. There were three hundred chicks in the shipment. Another shipment of white leghorns arrived Wednesday for Charles Kroll. All of the chicks were sent from Green Bay.

PAVE BRIDGE APPROACHES IN NEAR FUTURE

Kaukauna—Paving of approaches to the new bridge will begin as soon as the frost is out of the ground, according to A. Youngberg, McGarity Construction Co. engineer. This will include the section between the canal and river span which leads to the mill. The only other work remaining to be done is a little painting and retouch work on the canal span and at present the bridge is in perfect working order.

The Kaukauna Electric and Water department has finished stringing its wires over the bridge.

FORMER KAWMAN HEADS SCHOOL SAFETY COUNCIL

Kaukauna—Donald Cameron, a former Kaukauna boy, was elected president of the Inter-scholastic Safety council of the high schools, academies, and colleges of Kansas City, Mo., according to an announcement received in Kaukauna. Mr. Cameron is a senior at the Manual Training high school in Kansas City. The inter-scholastic council sponsored the five weeks safety course for motor car drivers at manual training high school last year.

Super-Smokeless Furnaces

Soft Coal But No Smoke
The Practical Application of the Scientific Super-Smokeless Device

In the SUPER-SMOKELESS Furnace two important and desirable results have been achieved. The first is the elimination of objectionable smoke when burning soft coal; the second is the obtaining of more heat from coal and a reduction in the quantity required.

The clean, smokeless operation and increased heating efficiency are due to the actual consumption of the heavy smoke and soot as valuable fuel. These were formerly unburned and left the chimney in black clouds.

The Bunsen Burner Idea
Utilized in Super-Smokeless Furnaces. Additional oxygen combines with the combustible elements and produces clean, hot flames which entirely consume the heavy smoke and soot of the soft coal.

STAGE AND SCREEN

APPLETON THEATRE

Nellie Sterling and a bevy of beautiful girls will exhibit snow shoe dancing in addition to other top-notch efforts at the Fischers Appleton Theatre this weekend and will offer entertainment of a very high type. This act has recently returned from England where it made a big hit. With scenery accurately depicting the great northwest snow storms the dancers will present snow shoe dancing—and this is the only act in the world doing this. Other forms of dancing to be presented are waltz clog, Lancaster clog, skipping rope, long boot dancing and pony ballet.

William V. Morrow, "The Jester," will entertain with comedy conversation and songs, offering a great number entitled "The Seven Ages" and doing the laughing song which is identical with his stage career.

Zinka Panna, the Hungarian Gypsy Girl, will play violin and symphonium offer (1) Hungarian melody, (2) jazz melody, (3) medley with Hungarian Rhapso, as the theme and (4) comedy medley of popular songs.

Harry and Lillian Ackerman will entertain with comedy and harmony singing interspersed with comedy talk.

To accommodate all we will show two separate photoplays during the three days showing of the vaudeville bill. On Friday and Saturday we will show a melodrama, a thrilling epic of a newspaper office, "The Million Dollar Handicap," and on Sunday we will show "The Last Edition," a story of the race track featuring Vera Reynolds, the lovable heroine of "The Road to Yesterday," supported by Edmund Burns. This policy enables theatre goers to select the type of photoplay they wish to see with the weekend vaudeville bill. If you like gripping melodrama, a story oozing with action, see "The Last Edition" on either Friday or Saturday. The "Million Dollar Handicap" shown on Sunday will appeal to those who like horses and a photoplay with a sporting swing.

MELODRAMA CURSE REMOVED BY "MIKE"

A picture that abounds with the type of humor that amuses young and old alike, is at the Elite Theatre for 3 days starting today. It is Marshall Neilan's production of his own story, "Mike," and is a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture. It is his third original for the screen, the other two being "Minnie" and "Dinky."

"Mike" tells a simple, rather melodramatic story with all the curve of the usual melodrama, removed by the sly wit, the subtle humor, and the hilarious comedy. It is said to be Marshall Neilan's best picture.

Sally O'Neill, a new "discovery" of Neilan's makes her first appearance on the screen in the title role, and according to advance reports is proving a real find. She is a typical American girl of Irish ancestry. William Haines, the popular young juvenile, plays opposite Sally as "Harlan."

Three comedians of long standing play important roles in "Mike." Charles Murray, Ford Sterling and Ned Sparks assist Neilan in "putting across" one of the most delightfully funny and thrilling pictures of the season.

Other members of the cast include Sam De Grasse, Muriel Frances Dana, Frankie Darro and Junior Coghlan.

"CHECKERED FLAG" IS THRILLING FILM

Elaine Hammerstein is always a joy to behold and when she's in as good a picture as "The Checkered Flag," coming to the New Bijou Friday and Saturday, the event is doubly joyous. Be sure to put this one in the beginning of your amusement list this week because it's excellent.

PERSONAL HAPPENINGS FROM MEDINA VILLAGE

Special to the Post-Crescent.
Medina—Edw. Behrens spent the weekend at Chicago.

Miss Bertha Knutzen of Neenah, spent the weekend at the home of her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol. Yankee were Appleton visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Mac Stick and Gordon Siebert, who are employed at Oshkosh, spent the weekend at their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Grant of Appleton were entertained at the Frank Grant home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Harland Grant returned to Appleton with them to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Loose and family visited relatives at Mackville, Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Gast of Appleton, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Minnie Gast.

Arthur Yankee was at Appleton Friday.

Mrs. Boldt and daughter, Helen, of Dixon, Ill., are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Charles Knaack returned to her home here Monday, after a three weeks' confinement at St. Elizabeth hospital at Appleton, following an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardie Van Alstine and family visited at the Grant Nutter home at Neenah Sunday.

William Buck of Medina, has been taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jay Bottensok, at Hortonville, for an indefinite time, following a prolonged illness at St. Elizabeth hospital, Appleton.

Miss Caroline Plunker entertained a number of young people at her home Saturday evening in honor of Dorothy Hill and Fred Plunker, whose birthdays occurred last week.

The novel by John Mersereau, is an exciting and well-screened tale of the auto speedway. There are thrills aplenty, most of them occurring during the race in which Rita Corbin (Elaine Hammerstein) drives her lover's car when he does not appear, and beats 'em all, including her father's entry—which was rather sporting of her considering that she was justly angry at the young gentleman for believing that she had played a nasty trick on him.

Elaine Hammerstein brought just the right verve and color to her role and Wallace MacDonald was fine as the hero. Others who did commendable work are Lee Shumway as the villain, Robert Ober as Marcel Dejeans, a dashing little Frenchman, Peggy O'Neill as Mary McGuire, Marcel's severest critic and Lionel Belmore as the heroine's father.

SALE OF SAND, GRAVEL COMPANY IS ANNOUNCED

Waupaca—Probably one of the largest deals ever consummated in the city of Waupaca was transacted Monday when the Waupaca Sand and Gravel Company was sold by local interests to E. R. Nutt and Mrs. A. W. Lee of Plymouth. Offices of the concern are located in this city and the plant is at Lake Emily in Portage-co. The entire 1926 output is contracted for and is to be used in the construction of next summer's road program in that county. The capacity of the plant is said to be 12 to 20 cars a day.

George Swiger, who has acted as sales manager of the firm since the death of R. W. Whale, will continue in the same capacity. The following Waupaca were the most heavily interested financially: Alfred Johnson, Soren Johnson, William Dressen and Mrs. R. W. Whale. The organization was started 16 years ago. Alfred Johnson and William Dressen were among the organizers.

With only a few days left for candidates for city offices to file nomination papers the race will probably begin up as follows: W. G. Rudersdorf and F. E. Chandler for mayor; J. A. Houseman for city clerk; Anton Johnson for city treasurer; S. A. Parling-ton and John Hebblewhite for city assessors.

In the first ward, S. J. Danielson is a candidate for supervisor; O. E. Hansen and H. P. Mortensen are candidates for alderman.

In the second ward N. P. Peterson will probably be unopposed for supervisor to succeed himself, and Harvey Peterson is so far the only candidate for alderman.

P. W. Rosche for supervisor and Chris H. Hansen for alderman seem to have the field to themselves. A. W. Spindt and T. W. Davidson are out for the representation as alderman from the fourth ward, with Fred Fisher unopposed in the field for supervisor. At present no rumors have existed as to any others coming into the race.

Schultz Brothers of Chicago will open a chain variety store in this city on Saturday, March 27. The building formerly occupied by the old Lyric theater, has been carefully remodeled throughout and has had a new front and a heating system installed. Harry Ashley of Chicago and Earl Norton of Berlin have been sent here to prepare for the opening. Mr. Ashley will act as manager and Mr. Norton as assistant. Both gentlemen have been with the firm for many years and are making many friends in this city. The Waupaca store is the eleventh to be opened in this state.

Gray hair however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, for only 15 cents." This is merely the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moustache a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

COUNCIL PUTS OFF ACTION ON GARBAGE PLANT

Will Await Investigators' Report—Adopt New Bucholz Plat

There will be no city wide referendum on the matter of the garbage disposal at the coming election, it was decided by city council Wednesday evening. A resolution providing that the question, "Shall a garbage disposal plant be constructed and maintained?" be submitted to a vote of the people, was defeated by the council until after a report of the garbage inspection trip has been submitted by the special committee. The report probably will be available within a week or two.

It was the opinion of the council that there should be no referendum on the question until a more thorough knowledge of the matter had been obtained by the body from the committee.

ADOPT NEW PLAT

The Lake Park reserve plat located south of the city limits in the town of Harrison owned by F. R. Bucholz, was adopted and approved by the council. The plat contains more than 100 acres and has been divided into more than 200 lots. The resolution providing for its adoption was introduced by Alderman Mark Catlin.

When the resolution was introduced it was evident that there would be considerable opposition to its passage. Seven aldermen voted for passage and five voted against.

It was the contention of opponents of the plat that the city by adopting it, would probably be asked to annex it in the future and would then be expected to lay water and sewer mains and go to other expenses. Alderman Catlin countered that the plat probably would not be annexed for years and that when that time arrives, Appleton would be under no obligations to provide service.

Opposition to the size of the lot also was voiced, those fighting adoption holding that the lots were too small. Champions of Alderman Catlin's resolution pointed out that the lots and streets conform with present city streets and lots.

Appleton's tourist camp site became a reality with adoption by the council of the resolution prepared by the board of public works providing for the leasing by the city of the Lawrence Lutz land bounded by Pierce and Albia parks and Union st. and the Fox river. The lease, which was drawn up by Alfred C. Bosser, city attorney, was read to the council.

It provides, in part, for the following:

The city shall pay an annual rental of $500 included in which will be the use of the house on the grounds for a caretaker or other purpose.

The city shall have a five year lease with the option of an additional five year lease if desired.

The city shall have the option to purchase the property at any time during the period of the lease for $15,000.

Although no definite plans regard the camp site have yet been formulated it is generally agreed by the council members that it should be a pay camp and be made self sustaining. Final arrangements for accommodation of tourists will be worked out in the near future.

LOVE GREATEST OF ALL WORDS, FIFIELD SAYS

Evangelist Declares Love Stands for Highest Good in Life

Love stands for the greatest motives, the dearest purposes, the highest good in life and among its qualities are loyalty, obedience, vision and endurance, declared Dr. L. Wendell Fifield, Sioux Falls, S. D., speaking on "The Greatest Word in the World" Wednesday evening at the First Congregational church. This was the sixth of a series of Lenten services conducted by Dr. Fifield under the auspices of First Congregational church. Meetings are being held every noon this week at the Rialto theater and every afternoon and evening at the Congregational church.

The word "Love" is the greatest word in the world, the speaker said. He pointed out that all words are symbols and stand for some reality behind them and that for this reason they all throw with meaning. But love stands for more than any other word he said, as was most clearly exemplified on the Cross of Calvary.

At Wednesday afternoon's meeting at the church Dr. Fifield's subject was "Can Faith Cure Sickness?" Here the speaker distinguished between mental healing and faith healing, declaring that one great difficulty of mental healing was the mind was required to make difficult adjustments just at the time it was weakest and least able to function. He then spoke of faith in one's God and especially of the highest and truest type of faith in the God of Jesus Christ.

On Thursday noon the speaker talk

MISSIONARY TELLS OF CHINESE SUPERSTITION

Mrs. A. Winter, missionary to China, told of her experiences and work with the Chinese during the five years she spent in that country at the meeting in First Reformed church Wednesday night following the Church Fellowship supper in honor of Mrs. Winter. The customs and superstitions of the Chinese people, especially in matters of religion, were discussed by the speaker. She expects to return to China in the fall for another five year term, she said. Mrs. Winter's home is at Prospect Ohio.

A Lenten sermon in German was preached by the Rev. F. F. Worthman of the Reformed church at Kaukauna. His text was the anointing of Jesus by Mary, the sister of Martha. Mr. Worthman emphasized that nothing was too good to do for Jesus that no service was too much to do for the Saviour.

The committee in charge of the supper included Miss Tillie Jahn, chairman and Miss Eva Engel, Miss Ruth Brandt, Miss Ruth Meyers and Mrs. Harry Herzog assisting.

WOLTER IS HEAD OF NEW MEMBER BOARD OF C. OF C.

Directors Adopt New Plan Which May Do Away With Membership Campaigns

R. K. Wolter was appointed chairman of the membership committee of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the board of directors at Hotel Conway Wednesday. The remaining members of the committee will be appointed later.

The duties of the committee will be to preserve the membership roll from year to year and solicit additional members whenever possible. It is hoped that by the organization of the committee, the chamber of commerce will be able to abolish membership campaigns.

A committee of three consisting of George R. Weltengel, August Brandt and Fred Schlitz was appointed to count ballots and announce the result of the election of five members to the board of directors. The successful candidates will be announced at the annual meeting on Monday April 12 at the Hotel Northern.

The president also was instructed to appoint an acquaintance committee, the duties of which will be to welcome newcomers to the city and to perform such duties as may be required. The committee has not yet been named.

BUILDING PERMITS

A building permit was granted Wednesday to Ed Becker for the construction of a garage at 528 E. Fremont st. This was the only permit issued.

THIEVES TAKE CAR FROM M'CANN ALLEY

A Hudson four-door coach owned by the J. T. McCann Co., was stolen from the alley at the rear of the McCann garage at 208 10 W. College ave. between 8:30 and 9:15 Wednesday evening. The car is dark gray with a dull finish and had disk wheels and balloon tires. It has a spare tire on the rear with a two strap around it. The car bears a garage license plate with the number 272.

It is the second car stolen from the McCann company in about a month. The other car was taken from in front of Appleton theater where it had been driven by Miss Margaret McCann, but it was found later on N. Oneida st., beyond Wisconsin ave.

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday not much change in temperature.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

A low pressure area crossing the Lake region yesterday brought with it higher temperatures and fresh to strong winds, but it produced very little precipitation. High pressure now overlies the Lake region and central valleys, with generally fair weather. Temperatures are well above the seasonal normal this morning from the Rockies to the Appalachians, and there is no indication of a material change in this section during the next 36 hours. Low pressure is developing in the west and northwest, but it is doubtful if it will be enough to cause some cloudiness on Friday.

"SNOOKS" WINS HIS OWN CASE

"Snooks," a pet bulldog owned by Edward Frank of Memphis Tenn. got his master into a lawsuit—and then got him out again. Frank was sued for $5,000 by a neighbor who claimed the dog had bitten the neighbor's boy. The dog was malicious, he charged. Frank replied that the dog bit the boy because the boy had hit him with a stick and to prove the dog was not of an ugly disposition led him before the jury. "Snooks" wagged his tail the jury grinned—and Frank won the verdict.

WISCONSIN DEATHS

Special to Post-Crescent

Chilton — William Bringmann, 60, of Gravesville, died at his home at noon Wednesday after suffering with inflammatory rheumatism for the past four weeks. On Monday morning he had a stroke of paralysis, and although he was conscious up to Wednesday morning there was no hope for his recovery.

Mr. Bringmann was born in the town of Rantoul on Oct. 15, 1866. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bringmann. He lived with his parents until they retired from active life, when he purchased the farm from his father. He occupied it until seven years ago when he purchased the Stephenson home in Gravesville, where he has since resided.

He is survived by one brother, Ernest, and by five sisters, Mrs. Henry Pingel of Chilton town, Mrs. John Jesse of Matteson, Mrs. Claus Thiel of Brill, Mrs. Jay Crawford of Chilton and Miss Augusta at home. One brother, Fred, died about a year ago. The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock on Sunday afternoon from the home, and from Trinity Presbyterian church the service being conducted by the Rev. Luther Harwood of this city and the Rev. Jordan of Brill. Rev. Jordan was the pastor of the church in Rantoul which Mr. Bringmann formerly attended. Burial will take place in Hillside cemetery.

Adventures Of The Twins

The Kind Chinaman

At last they reached China. That is the elevator on which the Twins, Jupe and Hickydoo, were riding, reached China.

They all got off and looked around curiously.

But no more curiously than the Chinese people looked at them. They had never seen children with light hair or white skin like the Twins before, nor had they seen a kangaroo, much less a kangaroo in a velvet coat. But the person who attracted the most attention was Hickydoo, who stepped jerkily along on his wooden legs and stared stonily ahead.

"It surely must be the land of dragon-flies," whispered Nancy to Nick.

Indeed it seemed so, for the Chinese ladies had dragon-flies embroidered on their dresses and dragon-flies on their obis, or blouses. Their fans had dragon-flies painted on them, the paper parasols were decorated with dragon-flies, and even the walls of the houses were ornamented with them.

"I hope we can get a bushel somewhere," said Jupe. "We'll have to hurry, too, for that old bat won't let us past until we do."

Right then they passed a market.

All sorts of things were for sale. Bird's nests, for one thing, and goose livers, and rice both cooked and raw. Then there were fish, big fish, little fish, and all sorts of fish. And flowers! Cherry blossoms and iris and big red poppies—all for sale! Everything but dragon-flies!

Suddenly they came face to face with the fat Chinaman with the picture, who had come down in the elevator with them.

He was still grinning and when he saw the Twins and Jupe and Hickydoo, he dropped and repeated the very words he had said in the elevator. "Ooly, booly only yippy yang sang werr!"

But nobody knew what an earl, or what in China, he was gabbling about.

Then suddenly he laughed and said in perfectly good American, "I just said that I was the Fairy Queen's ambassador to China, and I know why you are here. She told me to be on the lookout for you, I suppose the cross old bat held you up on your adventures and wouldn't let you past until you got a bushel of dragon-flies for him. Isn't that true?"

"Oh, yes sir!" cried Nancy and Nick. "That's it exactly."

"Well, don't worry," said the kind Chinaman. "I'll give you $5 a week. He gives everybody to China for dragon-flies. Not that he cares for dragon-flies so much but he thinks he'll keep them out of the way for awhile. That old bat is paid by Blue Whiskers, the wizard, to keep people away from the palace."

"How did you know we were coming?" asked Jupe.

"I was watching," said the kind Chinaman. "I knew exactly when you stepped on the elevator. So I pressed a button and down it came and brought you with it."

"Do you know where we can get a bushel of dragon-flies?" asked Nick.

"Yes, they are all ready," said the Chinaman. "They are in the elevator now, and you may return at once."

"Oh, we can't!" said Nancy. "We have to get a bushel of Jersey mosquitoes, too, and a bushel of fuzzy caterpillars."

"I've attended to everything," said the kind Chinaman. "You will find everything. You will also find your motorcycles repaired and waiting for you."

"I'm sure we're ever and ever and ever so much obliged," said Nancy.

"I should say so," said Nick.

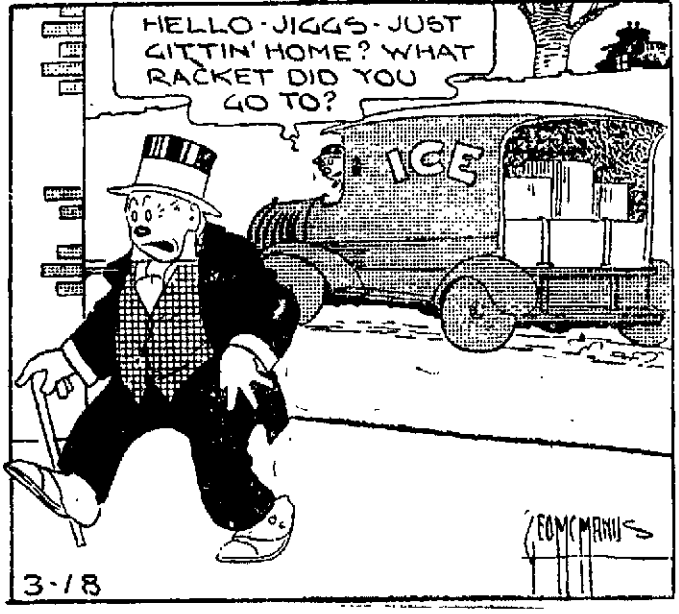

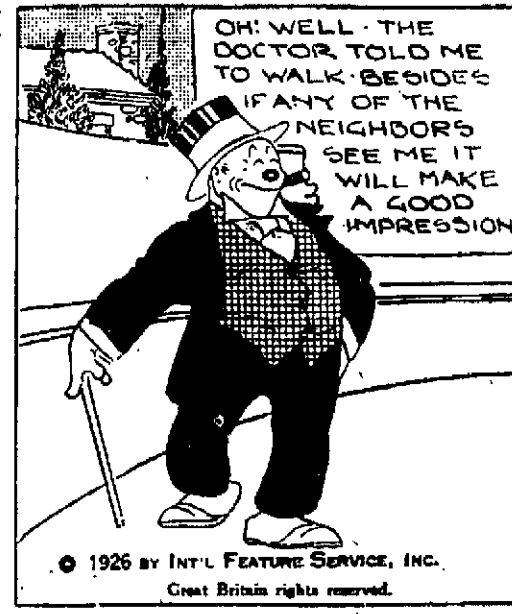

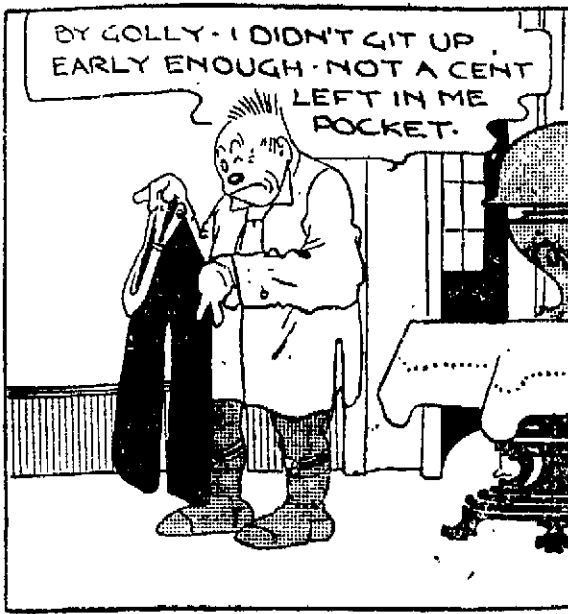

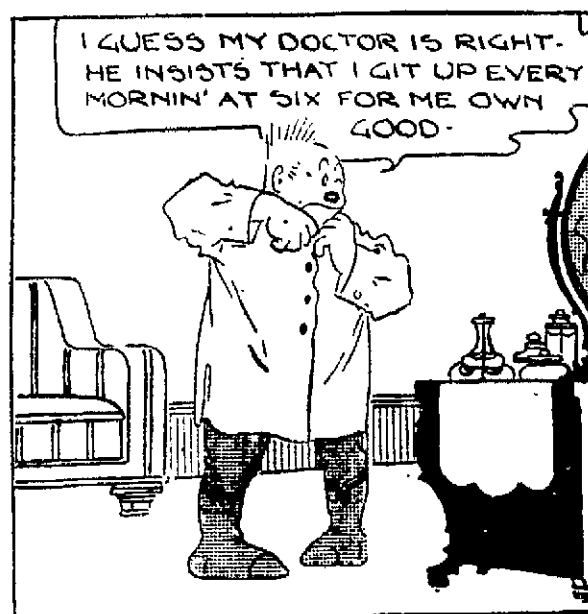

"Yes, indeed," said Jupe and Hickydoo.

"Don't mention it," said the kind Chinaman. "And now you'd better be going."

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO SYDNEY CARTON—CONTINUED

"You'll have to stand for whatever I say, young woman," said Simpson to his daughter. "If you don't, I'll beat the life out of you." The man was insane with fury.

Sally Atherton saw the girl was cowering. She stepped over to her, raised her and put her arm around her.

"You'll do nothing of the kind, because I'm taking the girl home with me. She's over twenty-one and you know it! Get out of here!"

"Say, young woman, who are you?" said Simpson drawing toward her. "Whoever you are, you better keep out of this. I'll settle this with Prescott here. This is something no self-respecting woman, let alone a young girl, can meddle with."

"If you mean me by self-respecting woman," said Mrs. Atherton, "you're wasting your breath. I put your daughter in this position when I went away and I feel quite responsible for her deportment as well as her efficiency. You've succeeded in frightening her very badly, but when she knows that I'll stand by her and she need take no more of your beating, I think she'll find life's a little easier. You're a great, strong man. Get out and work and take care of yourself."

Then she turned to the girl, saying: "Maggie, tell your story. Has Mr. Prescott been anything but a gentleman when you were about?"

Maggie Simpson burst into tears. "Don't be afraid, my dear. No one's going to hurt you. Just tell the truth. I'm sure you do not feel Mr. Prescott has harmed you in any way."

"Don't let 'em put it over you, girl," interrupted Simpson. "Whether consciously or unconsciously, you know that Prescott here has ruined your reputation."

"Look here, Simpson," I said, bending over him. "If I hear another word, I'll put you out of this office. Indeed, I would have done it before, this, if I hadn't wanted this matter settled for once and all."

You see, Syd, while I felt sorry for the girl, I had made up my mind, while Sally Atherton was talking, that I wouldn't give that old typewriter a single solitary cent. In this, I was backed by Maggie Simpson herself, for, when she found that Mrs. Atherton was going to stand by as her friend instead of getting her discharged, she was the happiest girl you ever saw. She turned to her father and said:

"Look here, Dad, if Mr. Prescott keeps me on, I'll give you $5 a week, but I shall not come home ever again and I don't want you to bother me."

The man began to snivel and said:

"Are you going to treat your old father like that? I would starve on $5 a week."

"That being the case," I said, "I'll add $5 to it, on condition that you do not attempt to bother any of us again. Now, get out!"

THROW DOUBT ON PEARY'S CLAIM HE VISITED POLE

Explorers Demand Fresh Evidence That Admiral Reached Hub of Earth

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington (AP)—Expression, by two such eminent authorities as Captain Amundsen and General A. W. Greely, of the opinion that "Doc" Cook's north polar claims are as good as Admiral Peary's were, has created a great commotion among the admirals' friends in Washington, where he spent his later years.

They denounce Amundsen and Greely vehemently but that doesn't mean what they've said, and the Pearyites are afraid, coming from men of their reputation, that it will be widely believed.

The upshot seems likely to be an effort, by the admirals' supporters, to have every bit of the evidence threshed out afresh, under the auspices of some such body as the National Geography Society, to settle the last doubt concerning the accuracy of their hero's story.

Only the trouble is, as General Greely points out, that there isn't much evidence.

Peary had with him, on the last leg of his journey, nobody, to quote the general, but "an ignorant negro and a few Eskimos," whose testimony is no better than that of the "dod" gumdrop-eaters.

That's where the admiral made his grand mistake. He ought to have kept Captain Bartlett along.

It's true that Bartlett believes his chief reached the pole.

However, he doesn't pretend to what happened after Peary ordered him to stay behind, as he didn't want a white man to share with him the honor of finishing the ultimate lap.

Bartlett admits this nearly broke his heart, but he certainly is having his revenge now, though he's too loyal to consider it so.

Much as he's been derided by the lady, Cook always has been popular among explorers. Peary emphatically is not.

The "dod," it's to be remembered, wasn't on his first expedition, by any means, when he professed to have found the pole. He'd accompanied several previous. All accounts agree that he was an ideal companion—helpful, brave, courageous and competent. Peary was accused of selfishness—witness his treatment of Bartlett.

So some of the brotherhood, like Amundsen and Greely, may be a trifle prejudiced. Possibly, if they could believe the "dod" accomplished all he says, they don't want to believe the admiral did.

At any rate, the captain and the general, between them, have shown Cook to be a man in a new light. Cook's former has focused attention on the fact that he'd accomplished all he says, they don't want to believe the admiral did.

NEWLYWEDS! DON'T ARGUE ABOUT WEDDING GIFTS

BY CYNTHIA GREY
Some day one of our country's best minds will organize a company entitled "The Right Wedding Gift Selection Firm."

But until said best mind goes into high, brides and grooms must cope with this wedding gift bugaboo which has wrecked many of our best homes.

Susie Green's, for instance. The day after Susie married Ignace, Ignace's Aunt Emma's wedding present arrived. It was a purple worsted pen wiper heavily embroidered with silver thread.

It was not only a pen wiper, it was the last straw. Susie tore all the bridal merriment out of her hair because the pen wiper wasn't in dull rose to match the library draperies.

And Ignace said that any bride of his who made such a spectacle of an innocent little pen wiper could trot right back to her mamma and poppa. And he called a Purple cab for Susie.

And the historic legend of Kashnera and Patrick. Patrick's mama sent her bless-you-my-children a set of green crystal salad plates. Pretty plates. But the eleventh set.

And pretty Kashnera, mindful of all the nice fish bone and things the price of that eleventh green salad plate set would have bought, just had a good cry.

And Patrick, he said that if no bride of his liked his old Ma's presents, they'd better do something about it right away and quickly and briefly! Then there are wilder cases of nuptial friction, as the picture shows. Those little arguments that will creep out even in our best families as to whether a pair of pink satin shoes are that or mouse-traps, and whether fruit and nut bowls are foot tubs or finger bowls community size.

It's a wise bride who knows her own tongue at such a time. If she insists too firmly and too verbally that the funny cheese and sandwich tray is a flower basket, she may be terribly repentant when some visiting friend comments on "your lovely lovely cheese combination!" and she sees that malicious I-told-you-so look in her Lord and Master's eyes!

Wedding gifts! Store the major portion of 'em in the attic and try to live happily ever after in spite of them!

ELDER SON OF PRINCESS IS MOST BORROWED BABY

Harrigate (AP)—George Henry Hubert, elder son of Princess Mary, has become the most "borrowed" baby in England.

King George and Queen Mary, the grand parents, are particularly fond of the boy, and when he isn't romping about Buckingham Palace or Windsor Castle, George is "loaned" to Lord and Lady Harwood, parents of Viscount Lascelles, at Harwood House near here where a playground has been fixed up for his special benefit.

Now and then George Henry goes to Curzon House in London, the residence of the Duke and Duchess of York. Ever so often he is taken to St. James Palace to play his respect to his uncle, the Prince of Wales, and Prince Henry.

Goldborough Hall, between York and Harrigate, is really the home of George Henry, but he has been so busy making visits to his father that he's parents have seen but very little of him. Two nurses accompany Master George on his tours in a powerful limousine which the young man, who will be three years old February 7, already claims as his alone.

SCIENCE HAS NEW FORCE IN BATTLE AGAINST INSECTS

Poison-laden Airplanes, Acids and Even Parasites Take Part in Destruction

Kansas City, Mo., (AP)—Science in its war upon destructive insects is using poison-laden airplanes, acids and even parasites.

These and many other scientific subjects will be discussed in papers before entomological societies meeting here.

The American Association for the advancement of Science here.

Armies of parasites, mustered in the fields last season, are battling to save America's corn crops. J. H. Bigler and W. P. Flint of the Illinois State Natural History Survey, explain the parasites were sent out to check the ravages of the European corn borer.

The two entomologists, however, do not feel that America can depend on parasites alone to control the insect, which has made marked progress westward in the lower peninsula of Michigan and southward from the lake in Ohio.

Wireworms, larvae of snapping or "skipping jacks," which also have continued their raids on germinating corn, despite the chemical warfare of scientists, cannot attack when the seed is soaked in mercuric acid, is the discovery of F. A. Fenton of Florence, S. C.

Swooping low at 85 miles an hour, airplanes, loaded with arsenate of lead, dusted 1,000 acres of peach orchards in Georgia this year and the fruit so treated was equal to that of orchards dusted in the usual manner. The results should be accepted tentatively, says Oliver I. Snapp of Fort Valley, as experimentation has yet come far enough to fully establish the desirability of the new method.

A queen bee can be fooled with substitutes. Deprived of her daily ration of pollen, she will accept finely ground rye, wheat, oats, corn or buckwheat and go ahead with her job of laying eggs and ruling the hive. But the larvae (baby bees), if deprived of pollen, will die.

Ralph L. Parker, apiarist of the Kansas State Agricultural College, asserts that during the first two days of larval life, the infant bees partake liberally of royal jelly, which he describes as a concentrated food of a predigested nature secreted by the younger worker bees.

"For the remainder of the larval life," says Mr. Parker, "undigested pollen is mixed with the food derived from a secretion."

Unbreakable clocks are being made by an inventor in England who has produced an elastic material resembling marble.

Your children too will improve in weight, health and looks by treating them to ENZO JEL.

HARNESSING RIVERS

AND OPPORTUNITIES

A RIVER was only a river—something to swim in, to row across and to pull fish out of—until modern engineering harnessed this natural force and made it furnish the water supply and electric current for cities.

And the great stream of individual supply and demand, of wants and offers, that flows through this community every day was an undeveloped resource—until the A-B-C Classified Section turned it to the service of every reader of this newspaper.

The engineers who handle a city's water power are able to draw hitherto undreamed of possibilities of usefulness from the swiftly moving stream.

And the A-B-C Classified Section, with its four-score and more interesting and varied classifications, is designed to give a new and seemingly limitless service to the people of this city in supplying their everyday needs. Take advantage of it regularly!

APPLETON HOST TO 1ST STATE LEGION PIN MEET

ONEY JOHNSTON POST SPONSOR OF 1927 MEET

February Set as Date for Initial Tournament; Committees Already Working

A Wisconsin American Legion bowling tournament the first to be held here in this state will be held here in February 1927 under the auspices of the Oney Johnston post according to an announcement made in the Badger Legionnaire for March 17. Preliminary plans have been made to accommodate a large number of Legion bowlers here and committees have been appointed to arrange the remainder of the details.

It is hoped to make this bowling tournament an annual affair and the success of the initial meet in Appleton will have a great deal to do with its continuation from year to year. It is thought each American Legion post in the state will be entitled to enter as many teams as it desires, but one of the conditions will be that only one bowler may participate.

The idea of a state Legion bowling tournament was conceived here after the Oney Johnston post had made a beginning in similar local bowling activities. The post has always been one of the most active in the state in athletics having had baseball, basketball and bowling teams in various cities and counties.

Tournament committees will function next year but some of them will begin preparations now for the tournament. The entire secretary will be next year's athletic officer and the treasurer will be the post's finance officer. The present athletic officer is C. O. Eady and the present finance officer is Carl Beecher. The rules and schedule committee will begin work at once in forming a set of regulations to govern the tournament. This committee will also make a preliminary survey of the cities which might be represented in the state match. Following is a complete list of the committees:

Publicity—Erick L. Madison, Ralph Lee.

Alleys—Walter Schultz, William Trues.

Prizes—Carl Beecher, James Balliet, Luther Graef, Carl Tennie.

Rules and schedule—Joseph Schultz, Walter Schultz, O. Dietz.

Training—Max Bauer, Oscar Daver, Herman Schlemmer.

PLESTINA WANTS WRESTLING BOUT ON APPLETON MAT

Crack Grappler on Wisconsin Trip Will Throw Two Men in 75 Minutes

Martin Plestina, known as the Titan of the Mat, may appear before an Appleton audience in the near future if arrangements can be made to match him here according to a letter received by the Sport Department of the Post-Crescent from J. C. Marsh, his manager. Marsh states that he is planning to run through Wisconsin with his wrestler soon and that he will match Plestina to throw two men in 75 minutes. That is he will attempt to throw them both one fall each in that length of time.

If the promoter is unable to get two men to face him he will attempt to throw one man for two falls in 75 minutes. Should the man win one fall from Plestina he will win $1,000 for the fall. Marsh states that he is planning to run through Wisconsin with his wrestler soon and that he will match Plestina to throw two men in 75 minutes. That is he will attempt to throw them both one fall each in that length of time.

Plestina is a native of Poland, weighs 220 pounds and is 71 years old. He calls himself the red wolf and is a champion wrestler. Appleton promoter has requested to give the offer of a tent on a wide open lot. Mr. Marsh can be reached at 123 W. Madison Blvd. Chicago.

Argentina First Country Drawn in Effort to Find Competitor for America

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—Argentina was the first country drawn in the Davis cup drawing held at the Pan American Union Wednesday with Secretary Kellogg taking the first number from the bowl.

The pairing for Argentina which was drawn with the European zone will be with Hungary.

The other pairings in the European zone will be Spain and Ireland, Great Britain and Poland, Roumania and Italy, Holland and Belgium, South Africa and Portugal, Austria, Italy to meet the zone of South Africa and Portugal, match Sweden and Switzerland, France and Denmark, India and Czechoslovakia.

In the American zone the Philippines (Island) will meet the winner of the European and Mexico match. The best pairing being Cuba and Canada.

The drawings were made up by director Kellogg on the floor of the Pan American Union building in Washington.

The challenge nation to meet the American in the second round will be in Philadelphia in September this year.

BADGERS LOSE OUT IN NATIONAL CAGE MEET

Kansas City, Mo.—(AP)—The south-side Turners of Indianapolis defeated the Kenosha team of Kenosha Wis. 35 to 21 in Wednesday night's game of the A. A. U. tournament. Basketball supremacy will remain in the middle west.

After Washburn college of Topeka, Kans. lost the national championship Wednesday night in the A. A. U. tournament here the second round ended with four teams from Missouri, two from Kansas and one each from Indiana and Ohio still in the running. Missouri's survivors included the Hillsdale team of St. Louis runner up in the 1925 tournament.

THREE CARROLL SHOOTERS WIN 1ST-TEAM POSITIONS, 4 LAWRENCE MEN ON 2NDS

Dugan, Bazal, Schulze, Briese and Jones Picked as Best in Little Five.

Lawrence college captain, and first all state and second all Midwest conference guard in 1925 was the only Blue cager placed on the first all-state Little Five squad for 1926 chosen by members of the Post-Crescent staff who saw all three teams in action. Three Carroll players, Bazal, Dugan and Schulze, complete the selection.

Bazal easily was the outstanding star of the conference in the forward line his cool flowwork and unerring eye for the hoop making him the most valuable offensive man in the loop. Jones, Ripon captain chosen for the other forward job had plenty of opposition from Courtney, Elmer Grosh, and Dick Zussman with Stacey of Carroll and Reed of Ripon Courtney was relegated to a second team berth because of his participation in only half the Blue games.

He played against Carroll and Ripon at Appleton but not against Ripon at Appleton and only a few minutes against the Pioneers at Waukesha, just four days after he became eligible. His presence in these two games after a week's work with the team might have given Lawrence victories. He still has to play a full game on an opponent's floor. As it was he gives Jones a fight and is sure of a berth in 1927 unless he fails to work the way he did this year when he got 12 points in two conference games.

Zussman's injury slowed him up and spoiled his chance for the first team berth though his fight was all waves present and Denny was sure of another cool man on the floor besides Briese. Some fans will argue that Briese went 'big' in some games and was not so good in the next. He got seven ringers against Lawrence at Ripon and only two here. However he scored heavy in every game where he was played ordinarily and only was stopped when opponents put a man on him. In this case the opponent weakened its defense to take care of him and any man who can force the other squad to do this is too valuable to be left off the star team. In a team like the one above if one man is covered the rest will find the weak end defense easy picking.

Dugan high point scorer of the conference had an edge over Ashman in shooting and consistency. Reed went good at home but often seemed lost on an enemy floor. Lohr of Ripon also turned in some nice games, especially against Carroll at Ripon. Capt. Briese is easily the best guard in the loop and one of the best in the Midwest conference. In fact choosers of the above team would give him a Midwest berth in picking that crew. He can shoot, pass and dribble with the best and is a lightning floorman. His shots from midfloor featured a number of Blue games and when the opponents moved their defense to block the tries he dribbled under the hoop for easy shots. Schulze, Pioneer star, deserves the other berth in his play though his captain, Todd and Grove of Lawrence showed up well as did Hauser of Ripon. Schulze was kept off the first team last year only because of the efficiency

2 CARD HURLERS GO ON SICK LIST

Rains and Cold of Texas Hurts Hornsbyites; Browns, Dodgers Also Suffer

St. Louis, Mo.—(AP)—Hallahan and Sherdel, Cardinal hurlers are on the sick list with colds and several other players are complaining as a result of rain and cold during the last week at San Antonio, Tex., where the Cards are training. For the third time within a week rain Wednesday cancelled an exhibition game.

Bob Lamotte, Brown shortstop was put out of play for at least a week Wednesday at Clearwater, Fla., when he was hit squarely in the eye by a batted ground ball during a game with the Brooklyn Dodgers, which Brooklyn won 10 to 5. Johnny Batters, high priced infielder purchased from the American association by the Dodgers, has been ordered to the Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore from the camp at Clearwater, Fla.

New York—(AP)—Urban Shocker of the Yankees served four innings of hitless ball against the Braves at St. Petersburg and the Yanks won 2-1.

London, Frisch, Southworth, Kelly Jackson and Tyson got a string of hits for the Giants that set back the Athletics at Saratoga 10-4.

Chicago—(AP)—St. Patrick's Day was observed at Shreveport, La., but there was no green parade to the play of the Chicago White Sox who defeated the Shreveports 7-0.

For the last Catalina Island training game, Manager McCarthy of the Chicago Cubs made changes in the lineup which indicated Shannon has not clinched the shortstop berth. The "Goofs" with Blake and Osborn doing the hitting won the game, 2 to 0.

Cosmos—(AP)—The Braves lost their first exhibition game this year to the Yankees at St. Petersburg, Fla. The tribe made but a single hit, a triple by Jimmy Walsh that went away over Babe Ruth.

Philadelphia, Pa.—(AP)—The Phillies "Sooner" Manager Fletcher's second team was the only Philadelphia baseball nine to emerge victorious in Wednesday's practice games winning from the regular team, 2 to 0 at Broadview, Pa.

Connie Mack's Athletics lost both their games. The regular nine on a tour of Florida training camps was defeated by the Giants at Sarasota while at Fort Meyers, the Marklets went down before the Baltimore International, 5-6.

Detroit, Mich.—(AP)—Two regular baseball teams made up members of the Detroit American Squad at Augusta, Ga., will clash each day for the rest of the week in the Tigers training camp. The teams were named Wednesday and the first game, Wednesday, was a 3-2 victory.

The contest turned out to be a slugfest match between Harry Heilmann, last year's leading hitter in the American league and Heine Maners who also has considerable reputation as a batter. Heilmann's team turned in the victory.

Pittsburg, Pa.—(AP)—Fresh from a 6-4 victory over the San Francisco Seals Wednesday in their first real test of the year, the Pittsburg Pirates were ready for the second game of the series Thursday.

Cincinnati, O.—(AP)—With two recruits on the mound the Reds overcame a scare from the Winter Park Pirates at the Orlando training camp Wednesday and finally subdued the semi-pros, 5 to 3.

HELEN FINDS LITTLE TROUBLE IN NET MEET

Cannes, France—(AP)—Miss Helen Wills, the American champion, is meeting little opposition in her advance through the singles of Cannes Club Lawn Tennis tournament. In the quarter finals Thursday she defeated Miss J. M. Padwick of England without the loss of a game.

Wallingford, Vt., reports that it had no fires, with loss or damage in 1925.

SHE'S PREXY

MRS. JEAN KNEPPRATH

Mrs. Knepprath is president of the International Women's Bowling association, which will hold its annual tournament at Milwaukee the latter part of April. She expects a new record, for entries will be set at this get-together. Mrs. Knepprath is one of the country's best fair sex bowling enthusiasts. Her home is in Milwaukee.

MANY PRO GOLFERS IN FLORIDA WINTER MEET

St. Augustine, Fla.—(AP)—Professional golfers from many parts of the country were here Thursday for the first winter championship tournament to be decided at match play over the St. Augustine links starting with in 18-hole qualifying round for 16 places Thursday.

The first of Thursday starters includes two former national open title holders, Gene Sarazen and Phil Walker. Other entries include Bobby Cruikshank, Leo Diegel, Canadian open champion and Bill Mearns, Johnny Farrell, Bob McDonald, Al Espinosa and Joe Truena.

Walter Hagen and Joe Kirkwood entered but had not reached here early Thursday in time to participate. Jim Barnes and Willie MacFarlane withdrew the former because of a sprained hand and the latter because of illness.

WHITE SOX ARE TEAM OF VARIOUS NATIONS

The White Sox might well be called a team of all nations. Aside from two American Indians as well as a Mexican, practically every other nationality is represented on the club, as you will observe from the following: Gronowski, Steingraef, Benz, Mostil and on down the line.

Use It Like Your Cook Book, Mrs. Housekeeper!

When you need some particular culinary information from your cook book, you turn to its alphabetical index to find what you want.

That's easy—and you do it all the time. And when you want some particular information about buying or selling opportunities—when you have different needs of everyday life to be satisfied—

Just turn to the alphabetically indexed ads in the Classification that specially interests you in the A-B-C Classified Section.

The Classifications are conveniently grouped and in "1-2-3" arrangement—and every ad under each one is listed in "A-B-C" order.

You'll find this service just as necessary and helpful—and easy to use—as your cook book. Get it every day!
